SELECTED
DELEGATES

MEMORANDUM FOR: H. James Field, Jr.
FROM: Dick Mastrangelo
SUBJECT: Pennsylvania Delegation
DATE: July 28, 1976

Since Reagan's surprise announcement that he has asked Senator Schweiker to run for Vice President should the convention ever nominate them as a team we have been reviewing the entire Pennsylvania situation in order to give the President the most complete and up-to-date briefing possible for his meeting with the Delegation on Thursday, July 29.

This section of that briefing discusses those persons whom I feel should receive special attention either because they are performing yeoman service for the President or because they are still uncommitted and need to be worked on.

In each instance there is special background data on the individual in the general briefing section. This section merely calls attention to the person and suggests why they have been singled out.

STATE SENATOR RICHARD FRAME Delegate at Large
Chairman, Pennsylvania Republican State Committee
Minority Leader, Pennsylvania State Senate

Senator Frame has been solid for the President for a very long time. It was his state committee that endorsed the President over a year ago and his leadership has been critical not only in setting up a firm delegation but in re-evaluating it since the announcement. He will be extremely important to keeping our votes solid and he is anxious to play this role for the President.

HONORABLE GEORGE I. BLOOM Delegate at Large
Former Republican State Chairman
Former Public Utilities Commissioner

George Bloom was honored recently as Pennsylvania Republican of the Year. He has considerable influence among the party faithful and the delegates and has been using that influence to keep the President's support in line. He is an older man and very key to our success.

ELSIE HILLMAN Delegate at Large
Republican National Committeewoman

Elsie, whose husband is recovering from a minor heart attack, is universally known and respected in Pennsylvania politics. She has been an early supporter of the President and has reaffirmed that support by contacting members of the delegation to indicate that she is staying with him.

Other At Large delegates who will be present and the President may want to single out for a word of appreciation are:

Ambassador William Warren Scranton -- a tremendous help
Congressman H. John Heinz - the Republican nominee to succeed Senator Scott

Senator Hugh Scott

Drew Lewis - the PFC chairman who is going all out to keep his committment of more than 90 votes in the delegation for the President. Drew should fill Senator Schweiker's vacancy when he resigns from the delegation and was recently selected to be the Republican National Committeeman for Pennsylvania

The following members of Congress are district delegates and have been helping us since the announcement:

Lawrence Coughlin

Bud Shuster

Herm Schneebeli

This leads to our problem children -- a list of delegates who require special attention for the reasons indicated:

ANN V. BLACK

19th Congressional District

Mrs. Black met with the President on July 1 as part of the uncommitted group which came to the White House. She is still uncommitted. George Bloom is very close to Mr. Black who is presently recovering from heart surgery following a hear t attack. Mrs. Black, who will be accompanied by her son, is very conservative and upset by the Reagan announcement. Drew Lewis feels we have a chance to swing her but it will be difficult.

JIM STEIN

12th Congressional District

Jim Stein is a conservative student whom we had regarded as a sure Reagan vote until the announcement. He has issued a public statement, however, and sent a telegram to the President saying that he is pledged to support the President. This was a big win and is indicative of the general feeling among conservatives that Reagan made a bad error.

CHARLES WOLF

19th Congressional District

President of the York Container Company, Mr. Wolf is fond of Rog Morton who called him in an effort to get him to go from uncommitted to pro-Ford. Following the Reagan announcement we have been unable to reach him but we feel he is still leaning toward the President and would like to firm up his support.

EDWARD B. BYRNE

21st Congressional District

Mr. Byrne is conservative and presently uncommitted. He has been listed as leaning toward the President, but has a major problem: several years ago he ran for Congress and Republican Floor Leader Gerald Ford was in Pennsylvania for a Republican function during that campaign. Byrne feels that Congressman Ford gave him the "cold shoulder" at that time and contributed to his not winning the election. He is a devout man, but I sincerely hope that if he decides to turn the other shoulder, it is warmly greeted.

ROBERT MUMMA

17th Congressional District

Has been considered a soft vote for the President and is being specially contacted by Governor Scranton. He is a wealthy contractor whose father served in the Congress with the President. Mr. and Mrs. Mumma are slated to attend the Finnish Dinner next week.

NEWELL WOOD

11th Congressional District

A State Senator, Mr. Wood is very conservative but close to Senator Dick Frame and Governor Scranton. He has been upset that Governor Fine was left off the delegation when Governor Shafer was not, but Frame is working out that problem. He has also been invited to next week's State Dinner.

THOMAS TWINE, SR.

17th Congressional District

Mr. Twine was in to see the President with the uncommitted group from Pennsylvania on July 1. He is still listed as uncommitted but George Bloom is the principal person assigned to work with him. The PFC urges that the President limit his remarks with Twine to merely recalling having met him on the previous visit.

CHARLES DODD

23d Congressional District

Chuck is an erratic young farmer who has a serious disagreement with the USDA. Because we were unwilling to even consider entertaining his suggestions concerning governmental action he decided to "switch" from the President to Reagan and did so publically. The Schweiker announcement should give him more opportunity to stay with Reagan because it removed the conservative ticket problem in his mind. He will probably ask a question critical of Secretary Butz or in some other way indicate his displeasure but the PFC acted both in good faith and in accord with law by not even setting up an appointment at USDA for him.

JOHN W. DEGROOT, JR.

16th Congressional District

Mr. Degroot also came to visit the President earlier this month and is still uncommitted although he is leaning toward the President. He is a conservative and was not overly enthusiastic about the Reagan announcement. We feel he is still leaning toward the President.

CAL G. GRIFFITH III

9th Congressional District

Cal Griffith was uncommitted when he visited the White House in early July and is still listed as not favoring either candidate. He is conservative and we feel would like to be able to vote for Reagan. In response to the Schweiker announcement he called it "a master stroke" and quickly added it was "a sell out". We feel we can win him for the President.

NICHOLAS KARAYANNIS

7th Congressional District

Dr. Karayannis, a medical doctor, is strongly anti-Secretary Kissinger. He is Greek and will be strongly influenced by the views of the Greek community with regard to the Cyprus issue -- and may ask you about this issue at the meeting. He has been uncommitted although the PFC had felt he was leaning Reagan. Since the announcement, however, he has stated he is very much uncommitted.

WILLIAM S. BREWER

19th Congressional District

Brewer was also in to see the President early in July and since that time shifted from Uncommitted, leaning Reagan to the Reagan column. He is extremely upset about the Schweiker announcement, however, and has to be counted at least as soft-Reagan if not again uncommitted. He is Ultra-conservative and very much anti-labor. He can be expected to ask an anti-labor question -- probably in favor of right-to-work legislation.
