THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

August 5, 1976

Dear Charlie:

I regret not being able to join your many friends in honoring you tonight at the opening of your photo exhibit.

Your pictures chronicle history with special talent and flair, and Americans are fortunate to have had your seasoned eye record and preserve so many events for now, and for years to come. Knowing a picture is worth a thousand words, I believe your impact of telling this nation's story is indeed impressive.

You have my admiration, congratulations, and very best wishes, Charlie.

Sincerely,

Mr. Charles Gorry
