Dear Mr. President:

There are a number of housing and urban matters that are receiving current public comment which I believe we should discuss. Since June 14, I have made repeated efforts to secure fifteen minutes on your calendar. I fully appreciate the tremendous demands made upon your schedule, and I would not continue to request this time if I did not see a real need for such a discussion.

Rod and I thoroughly enjoyed the lovely dinner that you and Mrs. Ford gave in honor of President Kekkonen last evening and send our warmest thanks.

Sincerely,

/s/ Carla
