THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN....

August 15, 1976

RECOMMENDED VISIT WITH THE PRESIDENT

TO; JIM FIELD
FROM: JAMES A. BAKER, III
WHEN: MONDAY
RE: VIRGINIA DELEGATES: Mrs. Eliza Sprinkle,
James E. Crockett and Teddy Bailey

Mrs. Sprinkle, 80, is an uncommitted delegate. She is concerned as to which candidate will provide the nation with the most competent leadership.

James Crockett, is an uncommitted delegate from Wytheville. He is a retired clerk of the Wythe County Circuit Court. He has said he would go to the convention uncommitted.

Teddy Bailey is an uncommitted delegate from Bristol. The most recent reports on Bailey are that he is leaning Reagan. Bailey is a clerk in a circuit court.

Note: Crockett is the strongest Ford supporter of these three 9th District delegates. Glenn Williams has called all of these delegates three or four times prior to their arrival in Kansas City.
