House

1. Bill Archer Requests message of congratulations for Hedley V. Jackson of Houston, who will receive the highest award which Rotary International can bestow on August 31.
2. Garry Brown Urges that H.R. 15194, the Public Works Employment Appropriations Act, be signed or allowed to become law without the President's signature, if it passes the Senate in substantially the same form as it passed the House. Explains why.
3. James Collins Praises Bob Dole and Jim Baker selections. Requests 15-minute appointment with the President to present a campaign issue idea.
4. Thomas Morgan Endorses Seymore Heyison for the National Highway Safety Advisory Committee.
5. Gillis Long Sends detailed letter urging the President to take immediate action to alleviate "the severe impact that the low prices have had on sugar producers."
6. Steward McKinney Edward Biester Send detailed letter urging a veto of H.R. 12261, "in keeping with the Republican Party Platform adopted in Kansas City which for the first time calls for '. . . full home rule over those matters that are purely local.' "
7. Robert Michel Writes on behalf of Louis Neumiller, who was on the committee which chose the President as one of the 10 Outstanding Young Men in 1950, who recommends that the campaign film include a segment from this award.
8. Walter Fauntroy Sends detailed letter urging a veto of H.R. 12261. Says it "seriously undermines the District of Columbia Home Rule Act."
9. Harley Staggers Expresses deep appreciation for the ceremonial pen marking the signing of the National Swine Flu Immunization Program.
10. John Dent Richard Schulze Request that the President "take immediate action to place either an embargo or impose quotas on foreign mushroom imports." Point out that "subsequent to your decision for 'adjustment assistance' to the domestic mushroom industry, imports by Asian mushroom processors have increased by the largest volume ever experienced."
11. Pat Schroeder Writes on behalf of the Denver Committee of Concern for Soviet Jewry regarding Mikhail Mager, whose visa requests to emigrate to Israel to be reunited with his wife have been denied.
