Dear Mr. President,

I was deeply moved to receive your kind letter of August 30th. May I present to your Excellency my most cordial thanks and appreciation.

It was an honour and a great joy for me to be next to your Excellency during the closing session of the Eucharistic Congress in Philadelphia, and to enjoy closely your simplicity and cordiality.

All of us enjoyed your so inspiring speech, full of human and religious quality and of the spirit of understanding.

May I take this opportunity to wish you every success in your works for peace and prosperity not only for your beloved people and country but also for the world.

With warmest good wishes, Mister President, I beg to remain

Yours very sincerely,

/s/ Sergio Cardinal Pignedoli
