Dear Congressman:

Charles Leppert forwarded, along with his own recommendation, your letter inviting the President and Mrs. Ford to attend the dinner in honor of Congressman Thomas "Doc" Morgan on September 20.

As much as the President and the First Lady would like to be able to make an appearance at this event, it just will not be possible for them to plan to do so in view of the developments in the schedule for late September.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Chuck:

Thank you for your August 13 letter to the President, in which you extend an invitation to him and to Mrs. Ford to attend the dinner in honor of Congressman Thomas "Doc" Morgan at your home on September 20.

I know the President and Mrs. Ford will appreciate receiving this thoughtful invitation, and I will make certain your letter is called to their attention at the earliest opportunity.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

The Honorable Gerald R. Ford
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

On Monday evening (8:00 p.m.), September 20, my wife, Barbara, and I are hosting a buffet dinner at our residence, 5301 Portsmouth Road, in honor of my retiring Committee chairman, Thomas Morgan.

Knowing how closely you have worked with "Doc" in your capacities as President and House Minority Leader, I thought that you and Mrs. Ford might wish to join me and the other members of the International Relations Committee (and our spouses) in bidding him "farewell."

In the days ahead you undoubtedly will be on a "fast track." If, however, you are in Washington on September 20, I know that "Doc" and Mrs. Morgan would be greatly honored if you and your wife could drop by, if only briefly, that evening.

After your mid-September schedule has become more firm, I will contact your staff to determine whether you and Mrs. Ford can be with us.

The President
