THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 16, 1976

Dear Jack:

My sincere congratulations on your reelection.

The American people need you in the House of Representatives as a defender of fiscal responsibility and legislative restraint, which we both recognize are essential to sound government and economic stability. It is reassuring to me to know that you will be in a position to continue to promote vigorously those fundamental policies which are imperative to ensure our Nation's well-being.

With warmest personal regards,

Sincerely,

Jimmy Ford
P.S. it was a great luncheon in Buffalo.
J.

The Honorable Jack F. Kemp
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515
