THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 30, 1976

Dear Norman:

I deeply appreciated your kind telegram.

While the election outcome was a disappointment, there is no question that we put up a tremendous fight. We can indeed be proud of the campaign. The dedicated efforts of friends like you made it possible for us to offer a real challenge, and I will never forget your support.

Betty and I thank you from our hearts for your friendship, and we send you our warmest good wishes for the future.

Sincerely,

Jerry Ford
