MR PRESIDENT:

U. S. Anti-Satellite Capability

Jack Marsh reviewed the attached package prepared by Brent Scowcroft and commented as follows:

"I concur with the decision to go forward with the program as per TAB A. Based on past experience with the Soviets this could well be a technological area in which they are striving to achieve a lead and once having achieved it, would seek to freeze the situation in a status quo posture. Thereby, causing us considerable difficulty in taking the vital steps to obtain the desired capability we need.
