THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

January 19, 1977

Dear Ed:

I have your letter, and it is with appreciation for your contributions to our Nation that I accept your resignation as Under Secretary of the Treasury for Monetary Affairs, effective January 20, 1977, as you requested.

In doing so, I welcome this opportunity to express my personal gratitude for your distinguished public service. You have been at Treasury during a time of great challenge for our economy, and I know that your dedication, energy, and expertise played an important role in the success of my Administration's policies. In the years ahead, you will always be able to look back with pride on your many accomplishments as Under Secretary.

As you prepare to return to private life, you may be sure that you take with you my best wishes for every success and happiness in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Jimmy Ford
P.S. You were super.
