

The original documents are located in Box D13, folder “East Grand Rapids High Speech, November 11, 1948” of the Ford Congressional Papers: Press Secretary and Speech File at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. The Council donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Ext. H. R. High Speech - 11/11/48

I. Introduction

Armistice Day - Nov. 11, 1918

50,000 killed; 50,000 died of influenza.
What does it mean to you?

What should it mean to you?

Respect to your parents.
What did it mean to me?

What does it mean to me?

Tremendous effort by men + women.

Conditions in 1931

Depression - men out of work,
bread lines, factories closed, unrest in Europe + throughout the world, dictators either taking over or about to take over, our own govt's foreign + domestic policies were unsettled.

Became so self sufficient nationally we forgot our responsibilities internationally

What effect on our generation?

Stronger move with

Conditions today

Greater challenge but better equipped

We

Foot prints

Hba story

You & our country has a prophetic destiny to fulfill.