

The original documents are located in Box D13, folder “House Speech Koropas' Letter, September 1, 1950” of the Ford Congressional Papers: Press Secretary and Speech File at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. The Council donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Good - Speeches in House

MR. FORD OF MICHIGAN

MR. SPEAKER, several days ago I received a letter from a constituent which expressed a point of view that all of us might well pursue in the critical months ahead. The future security of our country is vastly more important than partisanship and I have assured Mr. Korepas that it is my intention to refrain from criticism that can be construed to be on the political level. However, at the same time I strongly believe it important to examine the records of the past and point out our previous errors so that the same mistakes will not reoccur hereafter. For the information of the members, Mr. Korepas' letter follows -

