

The original documents are located in Box D13, folder “House Speech Boyd Editorial, December 18, 1950” of the Ford Congressional Papers: Press Secretary and Speech File at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. The Council donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

GERALD R. FORD, JR.

MR. SPEAKER, a column by Harry Boyd, entitled MY AMERICA appears every day in the Greenville, Michigan, Daily News. Mr. Boyd's comments for December 12th, in my estimation reflect the views of many citizens throughout the nation, and for the benefit of those who haven't seen this column and the observations contained therein before, I include it as a part of my remarks.

*Speeches
House of Rep.*

