

The original documents are located in Box D14, folder “House Speech Editorial on India (introduction to), April 9, 1951” of the Ford Congressional Papers: Press Secretary and Speech File at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. The Council donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

GERALD R. FORD, JR. - MICHIGAN

MR. SPEAKER -

The following editorial appeared in the April 4th issue of the Christian Science Monitor. If the United States is to assist India at this time, action must be taken by the Congress without delay. I hope the legislation will come before the House so the entire membership can work its will on this vital problem.

The editorial reads as follows:

