

The original documents are located in Box D14, folder “House Speech Honoring Senator Vandenberg, April 24, 1951” of the Ford Congressional Papers: Press Secretary and Speech File at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. The Council donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

MR. SPEAKER -

On Saturday, April 21, 1951 burial services for Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg were held in his home town, Grand Rapids, Michigan. His loss will be keenly felt. For posterity I deem it appropriate to include in my remarks editorials from the Grand Rapids Herald, the Grand Rapids Press, the Grand Haven Daily Tribune and the Holland Evening Sentinel.

*Speeches
H. of R.*

