

The original documents are located in Box D15, folder “House Speech Introducing Editorials on Mikoyan and C-130 Incident, February 9, 1959” of the Ford Congressional Papers: Press Secretary and Speech File at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. The Council donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Speeches

Remarks of Rep. Gerald R. Ford, Jr.
February 9, 1959

Mr. Speaker:

With the recent revelation that the United States C-130 transport was deliberately shot down over Soviet Armenia near the Turkish border, the visit of Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan will have to be re-evaluated. Our own State Department, in releasing the transcript of the intercepted radio conversation among Soviet fighter pilots who attacked the unarmed American Transport plane last September, indirectly accused Mikoyan of lying about the incident.

In light of these revelations, therefore, I am pleased to include in my remarks two editorials from "The Western Michigan Catholic" published at Grand Rapids.

Both editorials are by Monsignor Joseph C. Walen. The first entitled "Why Salaams to Mikoyan?" appeared on January 15, 1959; and the second, "Impertinent Guest" was published on January 22nd.

#####

Remarks of Rep. Gerald R. Ford, Jr.
February 9, 1959

Mr. Speaker:

With the recent revelation that the United States C-130 transport was deliberately shot down over Soviet Armenia near the Turkish border, the visit of Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan will have to be re-evaluated. Our own State Department, in releasing the transcript of the intercepted radio conversation among Soviet fighter pilots who attacked the unarmed American Transport plane last September, indirectly accused Mikoyan of lying about the incident.

In light of these revelations, therefore, I am pleased to include in my remarks two editorials from "The Western Michigan Catholic" published at Grand Rapids.

Both editorials are by Monsignor Joseph C. Walen. The first entitled "Why Salaams to Mikoyan?" appeared on January 15, 1959; and the second, "Impertinent Guest" was published on January 22nd.

#####

