

The original documents are located in Box D15, folder “House Speech Introducing Phil Weaver Speech, June 17, 1959” of the Ford Congressional Papers: Press Secretary and Speech File at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. The Council donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

STATEMENT OF GERALD R. FORD, JR. June 17, 1959

Mr. Speaker:

Our Colleague, the Honorable Phil Weaver, of the First District, Nebraska, was a very constructive and extremely conscientious and most able member of the Defense Department subcommittee on Appropriations. Although this was Phil Weaver's first year as a member of this 17-member group he did an exceptionally fine job and in succeeding years he will contribute more and more in helping to make our National Security program sound and fully adequate.

On Monday, June 8th, the Lincoln Evening Journal, on the editorial page, carried a fine article on the excellent speech Phil Weaver made on the Defense Appropriation bill for Fiscal Year 1960 at the time the House of Representatives was considering this vitally important legislation.

The article is as follows:

STATEMENT OF GERALD R. FORD, JR. June 17, 1959

Mr. Speaker:

Our Colleague, the Honorable Phil Weaver, of the First District, Nebraska, was a very constructive and extremely conscientious and most able member of the Defense Department subcommittee on Appropriations. Although this was Phil Weaver's first year as a member of this 17-member group he did an exceptionally fine job and in succeeding years he will contribute more and more in helping to make our National Security program sound and fully adequate.

On Monday, June 8th, the Lincoln Evening Journal, on the editorial page, carried a fine article on the excellent speech Phil Weaver made on the Defense Appropriation bill for Fiscal Year 1960 at the time the House of Representatives was considering this vitally important legislation.

The article is as follows:

