Dear Mr. Ash:

By referral dated December 23, 1974, from the Assistant Director for Legislative Reference, your office requested the views of the General Services Administration on enrolled bill S. 2807, 93rd Congress, an act "To name the Federal building, United States post office, United States courthouse, in Brunswick, Georgia, as the 'Frank M. Scarlett Federal Building'."

GSA has no objection to Presidential approval of the enrolled bill.

Sincerely,

FRANK M. SCARLETT FEDERAL BUILDING

DECEMBER 16, 1974.—Referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed

Mr. BLATNIK, from the Committee on Public Works, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany S. 2807]

The Committee on Public Works to whom was referred the bill (S. 2807) to name the Federal building, United States post office, United States courthouse, in Brunswick, Georgia, as the "Frank M. Scarlett Federal Building", having considered the same, report favorably thereon without amendment and recommend that the bill do pass.

BACKGROUND

Francis Muir Scarlett was born in Glynn County, Georgia, on June 9, 1891, the son of Francis Muir and Bessie Brailsford Scarlett. He remained a resident of Glynn County until the day of his death on November 18, 1971.

Judge Scarlett was educated in the public schools of Glynn County until 1908 when he attended Gordon Military Institute in Barnsville, Georgia, from which he graduated in 1910. He entered the University of Georgia School of Law in 1910 and graduated with an LLB degree in 1913. He returned to Brunswick and began the practice of law. His first public office was Solicitor of the City Court of Brunswick which he held for ten years and established himself as an able trial lawyer. Subsequently, he engaged in the private practice of law until his appointment as a United States District Judge in 1946 for the Southern District of Georgia.

Among Judge Scarlett's professional accomplishments was the establishment of the Brunswick Division of the Southern District of Georgia. He played a major role in securing construction of a United States Courthouse in Brunswick.

COMMITTEE VIEWS

The Committee believes it fitting and proper to name the Federal building, United States Post Office, United States Courthouse, in Brunswick, Georgia, as the "Frank M. Scarlett Federal Building" as a tribute to his many years of distinguished service.

COST TO THE UNITED STATES

Rule XIII (7) of the Rules of the House of Representatives requires a statement of the estimated costs to the United States which would be included in carrying out S. 2807, as reported, in Fiscal Year, 1975 and each of the following five Fiscal Years.

Enactment of this legislation will not result in any cost to the United States.

VOTE

The Committee ordered the bill reported by voice vote.

FRANK M. SCARLETT FEDERAL BUILDING

DECEMBER 10, 1974.—Ordered to be printed

Mr. RANDOLPH, from the Committee on Public Works, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany S. 2807]

The Committee on Public Works, to which was referred the bill (S. 2807) to name the Federal building, U.S. Post Office, U.S. Courthouse in Brunswick, Georgia, as the "Frank M. Scarlett Federal Building" having considered the same, reports favorably thereon without amendment and recommends that the bill do pass.

PURPOSE

The purpose of S. 2807, as reported, is to appropriately designate and name the Federal building, Post Office, and U.S. Courthouse, Brunswick, Ga., in honor of one of the great jurists of the South, Judge Frank M. Scarlett.

BACKGROUND

Francis Muir Scarlett was born in Glynn County, Georgia on June 9, 1891, the son of Francis Muir and Bessie Brailsford Bailey Scarlett. He remained a resident of Glynn County until the day of his death on November 18, 1971.

Judge Scarlett was educated in the public schools of Glynn County until 1908 when he attended Gordon Military Institute in Barnsville, Georgia, from which he graduated in 1910. He entered the University of Georgia School of Law in 1910, and graduated with an LL.B. degree in 1913. He returned to Brunswick and began the practice of law. His first public office was Solicitor of the City Court of Brunswick, a position he held for ten years and in which he established himself as an able trial lawyer. Subsequently, he engaged in the private practice of law until his appointment in 1946 as a United States District Judge for the Southern District of Georgia.

Among the late judge Scarlett's professional accomplishments was the establishment of the Brunswick Division of the Southern District of Georgia. He played a major role in securing construction of a United States Courthouse in Brunswick.

COST OF LEGISLATION

Section 252(a)(1) of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1970 requires publication in this report of the Committee's estimate of the cost of reported legislation, together with estimates prepared by any Federal agency. There is no cost to the Federal Government as a result of this legislation.

ROLLCALL VOTES

Section 133 of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1970 and the rules of the Committee on Public Works require that any rollcall votes be announced in this report. During the Committee's consideration of this bill no rollcall votes were taken.

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW

In compliance with subsection 4 of the rule XXIX of the Standing Rules of the Senate, it is reported that this bill effects no change in existing law.

Ninety-third Congress of the United States of America

AT THE SECOND SESSION

Begun and held at the City of Washington on Monday, the twenty-first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and seventy-four

An Act

To name the Federal building, United States post office, United States courthouse, in Brunswick, Georgia, as the "Frank M. Scarlett Federal Building".

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America on Congress assembled, That the Federal building, United States post office, United States courthouse, at 801 Gloucester Street, Brunswick, Georgia, shall hereafter be known and designated as the "Frank M. Scarlett Federal Building". Any reference in a law, map, regulation, document, record, or other paper of the United States to such building shall be held to be a reference to the "Frank M. Scarlett Federal Building".

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Vice President of the United States and President of the Senate.
