Last Day for Action

January 27, 1975 - Monday

Purpose

Extends the dates for transmitting to Congress the President's Budget for fiscal year 1976, the President's Economic Report, and the Joint Economic Committee's report.

Agency Recommendations

Office of Management and Budget

Approval

Council of Economic Advisers

No objection (informally)

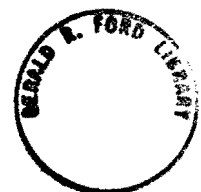

Discussion

Present law requires submission to the Congress of:

- the President's Budget during the first 15 days of each regular session (i.e., by January 28, 1975 in the case of the fiscal year 1976 Budget);
- the President's Economic Report by January 20; and
- the Joint Economic Committee's report on the President's Economic Report by March 1.

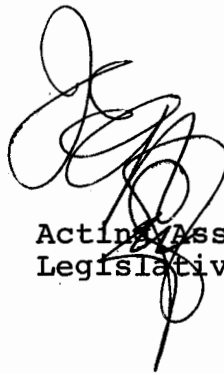

H.J. Res. 1 would extend these deadlines, respectively, to:

- February 3, 1975;
- February 4, 1975; and
- March 30, 1975.

During the debate on the floor of the House, Representative Mahon stated:

"The resolution would give the President additional time in which to make his submission of the budget to the Congress. The President has asked for the additional time to submit his budget. Under the law he has to submit it within 15 days, but this will give him a little additional time, until February 3. It is a routine kind of thing that we have often done before."
