MEMORANDUM FOR: HOWARD KERR

FROM: DAVID C. HOOPES

SUBJECT: Special Assistant to the President
 for Liaison with Former Presidents

Tab A is Executive Order 11456, signed by President Nixon on February 14, 1969, creating a Special Assistant to the President for Liaison with Former Presidents. The order has not been revoked, but General Robert L. Schulz retired in January 1973, and he was not replaced.

Tab B is a summary of the position and provisions of the order.

Tab C is a memo suggesting that Section 6(a) be revised because there is no "Special Projects" appropriation. This section provides for the compensation and expenses of the Special Assistant.

Tab D is a copy of the Ziegler briefing of February 14, 1969, when General Schulz's announcement was made.

Tab E is a sheet indicating that Schulz, as Special Assistant, was paid $35,000, that he had a secretary paid GS 9/8, and that Col. Streiff was detailed from the Army as a Deputy to General Schulz.

Thank you.

MEMORANDUM FOR JERRY JONES

Subject: San Clemente Liaison

Attached for your perusal is the Executive Order issued at the beginning of the Nixon Administration which creates the Special Assistant for Liaison with Former Presidents. This order has not been revoked or modified and is therefore still in effect.

In view of Al Haig's remarks the other night, I thought you would want to take the time to look this over and see what modifications ought to be made. At the minimum, it is obvious that section 6(a) will have to be changed.

MR. ZIEGLER: That is correct. If I am up there, I wouldn't say anything up there. Jerry Warren would say it down here.

The President has signed an Executive Order today creating the Office of Special Assistant to the President for Liaison with Former Presidents.

Retired General Robert L. Schulz has been named to fill this position and a copy of the Executive Order and General Schulz's biography are available to you.

Q What is the reason?

MR. ZIEGLER: The Executive Order spells out the reasoning behind this. The Special Assistant who will serve as the liaison with former Presidents will maintain channels of communication between the President and each former living President of the United States.

He will have the responsibility of informing and keeping former Presidents abreast of such developments as the President may desire and to avail himself of the counsel and advice of any of the former Presidents on major matters, particularly in relation to National security affairs.

Q What is the salary on that job?

MR. ZIEGLER: The salary as outlined in the Executive Order would be funded by appropriation under the heading of Special Projects in the Executive Office, Appropriation Act of 1969.

All of this is spelled out in the Executive Order.

Q Can you say how much that is?

MR. ZIEGLER: Compensation for the job is at such rate as the President, according to law, may prescribe. The Special Assistant level now, I believe, is $30,000.

Q This would be in addition to his retirement from the Army?

MR. ZIEGLER: Wait a minute. I am talking about the Executive Order. Now I will talk about General Schulz. General Schulz will serve in this job without compensation.

Q Is he still on Active duty?

MR. ZIEGLER: No. He is serving as an Aide for General Eisenhower and will continue in that capacity in addition to serving in this function.

Q So in effect the Army is paying for this salary and this job?

MR. ZIEGLER: He receives retired General's pay.

Q What I am asking is this: Isn't he on Active duty as a General?

MR. ZIEGLER: No. He receives retired General's pay, it is my understanding, and also some compensation in serving as Aide to a former President.

Q But he is getting no extra money?

MR. ZIEGLER: He will serve without compensation in this particular role.

Q So this means no money out of the Treasury as far as this job is concerned?

MR. ZIEGLER: That is correct.

Q Ron, will he have his office here or in Gettysburg?

MR. ZIEGLER: He will have an office available here, I believe in the Federal Office Building No. 7, and, the Executive Order also explains, any staffing that he would have available to him.

SUBJECT: Special Assistant to the President
for Liaison with Former Presidents

Tab A is Executive Order 11456, signed by President Nixon on February 14, 1969, creating a Special Assistant to the President for Liaison with Former Presidents. The order has not been revoked, but when General Robert L. Schulz retired, in January 1973, he was not replaced.

Tab B is a summary of the position and provisions of the order.

Tab C includes a memorandum from Stanley Ebner suggesting that Section 6(a), providing that the compensation and expenses of the Special Assistant for Liaison with Former Presidents be paid from "Special Projects", be revised because such an appropriation no longer exists.

Tab D is a copy of the Ronald L. Ziegler briefing on February 14, 1969, 4:20 p. m., when announcement was made of the appointing of General Schulz.

Tab E is a sheet from the personnel book indicating that General Schulz, as Special Assistant, was paid $35,000, that he had a secretary paid GS 9/8, and that Col. Streiff was detailed from the Army as a Deputy to General Schulz.

As you know, the arrangement for General Schulz's appointment was made principally because President Eisenhower was still alive, and President Eisenhower wanted President Nixon "to take care of him", since he had done so much having kept by him. (Schulz was Ike's military aide.) President Johnson and Truman seldom, if never, used General Schulz's assistance. He occupied offices at Jackson Place, and when, after the election, there were no more former Presidents, President Johnson having died in January 1973, Mr. Haldeman "retired" General Schulz.

MEMORANDUM TO: JACK MARSH FROM: RUSS ROURKE R

Jack, Bill Gulley has reported to me concerning his meeting with RMN on the subject of filling the now vacant position of Liaison with Former Presidents. You will recall that we advised Bill to run Dick Burress's name by RMN.

RMN not only didn't bite at the Burress suggestion, but he further indicated that he would not be disappointed if the entire Liaison with Former Presidents Office was shut down completely. He is perfectly happy to continue to work through Bill Gulley. I am convinced that Gulley is not promoting himself for this position.

FYI, I am advised that during the last full calendar year that this office was occupied, it cost approximately $96,000 to run. RMN, seeing no useful purpose being served by that Office, would prefer to see that many taxpayers' dollars saved. RMN also stated that the law refers only to service to former Presidents, and that the wives of former Presidents have been served by the Liaison Office in the past only as courtesy. Obviously, he is suggesting that their needs could continue to be served through direct communication with the White House.

RMN advised Gulley that he wanted to communicate his views on this subject in a letter to the President. Gulley's counter proposal, to which RMN agreed, was that he first run the idea by us conversationally prior to any direct effort on the subject by RMN.

Please advise your reaction.

MEMORANDUM TO: DON RUMSFELD

FROM: JACK MARSH

I would recommend that consideration be given to the appointment of Richard ("Dick") T. Burrese for the liaison with former Presidents' position. I have not, of course, checked with Dick to verify his availability for such an appointment, but he might be receptive to an offer.

Further, I think Dick will be acceptable to RMN and could work very nicely with Mrs. Eisenhower, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Truman.

Jack, FYI, Bill Gulley is the only person presently "acting" in the liaison with former Presidents billet. Rosemary Woods is on the "former President's pay roll"...this is unrelated to the specific billet of "liaison with former Presidents". Gulley tells me that "it wouldn't hurt his feelings one bit" if a specific individual was to fill this spot. You will recall that, when the names of Bob Smalley and Tom Lias were run by RMN, he was less than enthusiastic...and preferred, until a more favorable nominee came along, to continue working through Bill Gulley.

That is just about where the matter sits...in limbo.
