ORGANIZATION

MISSION STATEMENT
DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

The mission of the Department of the Interior is to formulate and administer programs for the management, conservation, and development of the Nation's water, fish, wildlife, mineral, energy, land, park, and recreational resources. This mission is carried out through:

- Encouraging efficient use of the Nation's resources
- Improving the quality of the environment
- Ensuring adequate resource development to meet the requirements of national security and an expanding national economy
- Maintaining productive capacity for future generations
- Promoting the equitable distribution of benefits from nationally owned resources
- Discouraging wasteful exploitation of the Nation's natural resources
- Ensuring maximum use of recreational areas.

The Department is also committed to the orderly incorporation of Indian and Alaska native people into the national life by creating conditions that will advance their social and economic adjustment.

MISSION STATEMENT
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

As the head of an executive Department, the Secretary of the Interior reports directly to the President and is responsible for the direction and supervision of all activities of the Department. He also has certain powers or supervisory responsibilities relating to Territorial governments.

In performing his duties, the Secretary is aided by an Executive Assistant, who serves as his top staff assistant and personal aide, and by additional assistants as required by program considerations. Besides monitoring Administration and Departmental programs and activities, the Executive Assistant acts on the Secretary's behalf to administer activities of the Secretary's immediate office. He also represents that office at important industrial, public interest, and government meetings and, when necessary, serves as contact between the Secretary and the Assistant Secretaries, bureau directors, and office heads.

The Office of the Science Adviser reports directly to the Secretary. The Science Adviser serves as staff adviser to the Secretary and assists in carrying out the Secretary's responsibilities for:

- Policy direction, coordination, control, and administration of the Department's scientific research activities
- Coordination and direction of the Department's scientific and technical information activities.

THOMAS S. KLEPPE
SECRETARY
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
Grade: Level 1
Type Appointment: PAS

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA

Thomas S. Kleppe, a former Congressman from North Dakota and Administrator of the Small Business Administration, was sworn into office as the 41st Secretary of the Interior on October 17, 1975, following unanimous confirmation for that position on October 9, 1975, by the United States Senate.

Kleppe brings to his position a long experience in government and business that resulted in close association with local and national issues involving agriculture, the environment, and the economy.

As a Congressman from North Dakota from 1966 to 1970, he served on the House Agriculture Committee and was a member of its Subcommittees on Livestock and Grains, Research and Extension, and Departmental Operations. He was the Republican nominee for the U.S. Senate from North Dakota in 1964 and 1970.

In 1971, he became Administrator of the Small Business Administration following unanimous confirmation by the U.S. Senate, and remained in that position until becoming Secretary of the Interior.

As Administrator of SBA, Kleppe advocated a people-to-people approach in carrying out operations of that agency.

Kleppe was born in Kintyre, North Dakota, on July 1, 1919. He was graduated from Valley City High School and attended Valley City Teachers College.

He got his first job at 17 as a helper at a grain elevator in Kintyre operated by his father. He became assistant manager of the grain operation and at age 21 managed a small North Dakota bank.

He entered the United States Army in 1942, attained the rank of Warrant Officer, and was discharged in 1946.

LOREN RIVARD
EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT TO THE SECRETARY
DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
Grade: GS-17
Type of Appointment: NEA (Quota)

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA

Loren Rivard, who was appointed in July 1976, as the Secretary's Executive Assistant, had been serving as Assistant to Secretary Kleppe for the preceding eight months. For nearly five years before joining Interior, he was a management official at the Small Business Administration. Earlier, he was administrative assistant to former Wisconsin Governor Warren P. Knowles.

Born in New Richmond, Wis., he was educated in Rice Lake, Wis., schools and worked in all areas of the family dairy business. He has a B.S. in economics from the University of Wisconsin.

OFFICE OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS

MISSION STATEMENT
OFFICE OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS

The Office of Public Affairs was initially established by the Secretary on April 16, 1955. The office establishes the public information policies and missions of the Department and provides direction to the various bureaus and offices on matters relating to public information policies and procedures. It is responsible to the Secretary for developing good working relations with the news media, for assuring adherence to the Freedom of Information Act, and for advising the Secretariat on matters affecting such areas. In carrying out its responsibilities, the office:

- Develops and carries out or supervises the carrying out of projects for widespread public dissemination of policy and program information on behalf of the Secretary
- Writes and issues news releases on Departmental policies and issues; develops speech texts, reports, briefing materials, articles, and similar materials for the Secretary; and develops publications and audio and visual materials as it determines necessary in order for the Department to be responsive to a broad range of public inquiries
- Guides the preparation of news releases, articles, and speeches produced by the various bureaus and offices of the Department and reviews them for substantial accuracy, and is the central point for the issuances of news releases relating to activities of each bureau or office.
