SEGRET

DECLASSIFIED

E.O. 12356, Sec. 3.4 (b) White House Guide Lines, Feb. 24, 1983

TO:

THE PRESIDENT

By NAR NAR Date 2/6/86

THR OUGH:

DICK CHENEY

FROM:

JACK MARSHAL

As of this time the general reaction of leaders who support our position on the Turkish matter is to let the dust settle over the weekend and make a careful assessment early Monday as to how best to proceed. They are of the view that we should try again but only if the votes are there. They want to wait until Monday to test the reaction of not only those with need to switch but also to be certain there is no erosion from our ranks.

Most seem favorably optimistic as of today, but cautious. This is based on conversations with Albert, Rhodes, McFall, Morgan, Zablocki, Wagoner, Satterfield, Anderson, Cedarburg and Sikes. It should be noted that Rhodes was not as optimistic about a reversal as most.

Max had members of his staff, Charlie Leppert and Tom Loeffer contact some members who voted against us as to the chance of reversing their vote. I believe their comments which follow will be of interest.

William Whitehurst (R -Va.)

Needs some indication by Turks that they are willing to compromise in order to vote to lift embargo. If the Turks would make some move then he would support lifting of embargo on arms paid for.

John Rousselot (R-Calif)

- He needs better justification in order to change his vote. He is willing to work with Michel to get the 15 conservatives to change. Feels that Fascell, Brademas, etc. are ready to talk.
- Turks must show some willingness to negotiate and resolve the refugee problem.

Goodloe Byron (D -Md.)

- --- He hasn't given it any thought since the vote. If we can work out some legislative position, he will be happy to try and cooperate but wants to think about it over the weekend.
- --- Feels need to take care of domestic situation but doesn't want to tie hands of the President.
- --- Will not vote for foreign aid, military or otherwise. May vote for cash sales on barrel head. Will not vote for aid to Israel. Not upset about Greek-Turkey situation -- but wants cash on barrel head.

OR FORD LIBRATO

Jim Martin (R-N. C.)

- --- If the Turks publicly indicate that they are now prepared to make a good faith effort to resolve the refugee/territorial problems on Cyprus, Congressman Martin could support some form of embargo relief.
- --- However, before supporting such legislation, the Turkish statement, must be clear as to their prospective actions in reaching an agreement on Cyprus.

Don Clancy (R - Ohio)

- --- While he has strong Greek pressures from his District, the Congressman indicated he would now be willing to support some form of embargo relief legislation.
- --- He said, ''If needed'', he would now definitely support the Administration's position.

Roy Taylor (D-N.C.)

- --- Stated that his decision to vote "no" last Thursday was a very difficult one -- he is torn between the Turkish violation of international agreement v. national security interests of the U.S.
- --- Notwithstanding the Turkey announcement of yesterday, this issue has continued to cause great consternation.
- --- Even though the announced Turkish action would be viewed as political blackmail by the Turks on the U.S., he believes if Turkey would make a public commitment that they were sincere in resolving the Cyprus question, the House of Representatives would remove the embargo.

Jack Wydler (R-NY)

- --- He can't go from one position to another without looking foolish.

 Wants to help but has to count votes in own District. But he is not delighted with the vote cast.
- --- What's really happening to our bases on Turkey?
- --- We need something to quiet the Greek community which is very emotional. Need some indication from Turks that they will do something in good faith on Cyprus.

Turks should take action in Cyprus -- like take home troops or machinery -- something he can hang his hat on.

Max says he talked with Bill Young who supported us. It was Bill's view we would lose votes if this was brought to the floor again. He said the members were so locked into their position that it was difficult to turn around. Young indicated he would still support us.

In addition, Max talked with Mike Reed, the Speaker's AA who was also pessimistic largely because of a blackmail argument.

We should have a better assessment of this by Monday when the House reconvenes.

Here follows Bill Kendall's report of today's action in the Senate:

Bills passed:

Appropriations: Treasury and Postal Service 76 yeas, 1 nay

HUD 73 yeas, 7 nays

Veto overriden: S-66, Nurses Training 67 yeas, 15 nays

On page 5, after line 17, add the following new section:

(e) In the case of any letter of offer to sell any defense article or defense service pursuant to the Foreign Military Sales Act or to furnish grant military assistance under the authority of the Foreign Accistance Act of 1961 for $25,000,000 or more, the President shall submit to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and to the Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate a statement containing (1) a brief description of the defense article or defense service to be offered, (2) the dollar amount of the proposed sale or grant, (3) the United States armed force which is making the sale or grant, and (4) the date on which any letter of offer to sell is to be issued or grant is to be made. The letter of offer shall not be issued nor the grant made if the Congress, within twenty calendar days after receiving any such statement, adopts a concurrent resolution stating in effect that it objects to such proposed sale or grant.

Turkish measures to control opium production [7/75]

FACT SHEET

- 1. The Turkish Government has at the highest levels assured the world that the resumed poppy cultivation would be adequately controlled to prevent harm to other societies as a result of any illicit opium reaching the international drug market.
- 2. The United States, joined by other countries which are also particularly concerned, and the United Nations Fund for Drug Abuse Control have been in frequent contact with Turkish authorities on this matter over the past seven months, responding to the invitation from the Turkish Government for advice and assistance on implementing controls that will be most effective.
- 3. Information available from Embassy Ankara indicates that since permitting the resumption of opium poppy cultivation (an important cash crop for Turkey) last year, the Turkish Government has taken a number of positive measures to control illicit production of opium, including:
 - -- banning the field production of opium;
 - -- instituting acreage controls;
 - -- requiring the sale of opium poppy pods in unopened condition to the government and opium extraction at government plants;
 - -- assuring the Turkish farmer an attractive price for unopened poppy pods on the government market;
 - -- protecting the farmer from fluctuations in the market price through financial support from the United Nations Fund, if conditions require.
- 4. Additionally, substantial surveillance arrangements involving aircraft and radio-equipped motor vehicles have been made, and large numbers of personnel from various Turkish Government agencies have been trained and are now being put into the field to enforce controls.
- 5. Recent reports from U.S. and U.N. experts in Turkey indicate general satisfaction with Turkish efforts to date.
- 6. While we cannot prejudge the results of the new Turkish controls, they appear to be substantial and relevant, and all signs are that the Turks are determined to enforce the control program effectively.

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT

I am deeply disappointed by the refusal of the House of Representatives to partially lift the embargo on the shipment of arms to Turkey. It is my strong conviction that the House action is not in the best interests of our Greek and Turkish allies, or our continuing efforts to assist in negotiations a settlement of the Cyprus dispute. Further, I do not believe it will serve the best interests of the United States.

I and members of my Administration worked hard to persuade Members of the House of Representatives that vital, national interests are at stake in this issue. I am very proud of those 206 Members of Congress of both Parties, as well as the Members of the Senate who supported a similar measure for casting their votes in the national interest. I deeply appreciate the efforts of the Bi-

•

Committee on International Relations.

I repret to say that I believe that events in the future will prove the correctness of their position.

I intend to continue to make every effort to assist in achieving an equitable settlement of the Cyprus dispute. I will work to reassure our allies, Turkey and Greece, of our sincere desire to maintain strong and effective relationships with them.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

July 3, 1975

MEMORANDUM FOR:

JACK MARSH

FROM:

RUSS ROURKE &

Charlie Leppert reached Bill Broomfield re Turkish aid question.

Broomfield is going to meet with Sam Goldberg on Monday to receive the hearing strategy and to discuss the question of who should be at Tuesday's meeting with Doc Morgan.

Consideration is being given to having Kissinger at Tuesday's meeting and expanding it to include 5 Democrats and 5 Republican Members of the Committee. He would hope that this would expanded the necessitity of Kissinger being present at Wednesday's hearing (Kissinger presently intends to leave for Paris on Wednesday morning).

Broomfield does not think Kissinger need be at Wednesday's hearing, nor does he think Doc Morgan believes it necessary. Broomfield thinks the staff is pushing it. He believes also that the staff is putting Cyprus on Kissinger's back and is seeking to embarrass the Administration ... also seeking to avoid placing the blame for Cyprus on Congress.

Charlie is now attempting to reach Doc Morgan ... he will call you with a final report prior to leaving for the evening.

THE WHITE HOUSE WASHINGTON

July 8, 1975

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM:

MAX FRIEDERSDORF

11.

SUBJECT:

Turkish Aid

Congressman Thomas E. (Doc) Morgan, Chairman of the House International Relations Committee, hosted a strategy session in his office late this afternoon on Turkish Aid also attended by Congressmen Broomfield, Hamilton, Whalen, Fascell and Zablocki.

Ambassador Sisco and Ambassador Macomber and other State Department personnel also attended.

Chairman Morgan and Broomfield, who both will be attending the Turkish Aid breakfast tomorrow morning, have agreed to hold hearings Thursday, July 10, in both the morning and afternoon, and are seeking to mark up the bill and report it out favorably on Friday, July 11.

They will seek to move the bill to the floor early next week if at all possible.

Chairman Morgan and Broomfield seem to be uniting behind a bill drafted essentially by Broomfield and Zablocki which would remove the suspension with respect to defense articles and services for which Turkeyhas already signed contracts (see attachments); to remove the embargo on commercial sales to Turkey, and to remove the suspension on military sales, credits and guaranties for items which Turkey needs to fulfill her role in NATO. In addition the bill provides for reports to Congress, urges the President to start discussions with Greece about her economic and military needs, and makes clear that no grant military aid would go to Turkey.

Congressman Hamilton pinpointed the need for the President and Secretary Kissinger to address at the breakfast tomorrow the issues of the legality involved in the Turkish use of U.S. arms for aggression, and the poppy question.

State Department personnel are covering these points in the briefing paper for your talking points.

We will have Doc Morgan and Bill Broomfield seated next to you at the breakfast and both seem willing to make supportive statements for your position following tomorrow's meeting.

I think it would also be extremely helpful if you called on them during the meeting and also Clem Zablocki who has been extremely helpful.

If you single anyone else it should be Dante Fascell and Chuck Whalen.

Chairman Morgan and Broomfield thought it would be helpful if you could also single out the bill drafted by Zablocki, Fascell and Hamilton as an acceptable compromise. They indicated they would introduce this bill immediately after your meeting tomorrow, seeking as many co-sponsors as possible.

DRAFT PREPARED BY STAFF ON BASIS OF DISCUSSIONS WITH

REP ZABLOCKI REP FASCELL REP HAMILTON

IT POINTS UP --

- * U.S. INTEREST IN REMAINING ON GOOD TERMS WITH OUR ALLIES
- * IMPORTANCE OF GREECE AND TURKEY TO N.A.T.O.
- * CONCERN OVER REFUGEES AND U.S. WILLINGNESS TO HELP WITH RELIEF AID UNDER U.N. SUPERVISION

IT GOES ON TO SAY THAT PENDING ACTION BY CONGRESS ON F.Y. 1976
FOREIGN AID PROGRAMS, PRESIDENT WOULD BE AUTHORIZED --

* TO REMOVE THE SUSPENSION WITH RESPECT TO DEFENSE ARTICLES AND SERVICES FOR WHICH TURKEY HAS ALREADY SIGNED CONTRACTS:

THIS INVOLVES $184.5 MILLION: ABOUT $104 MILLION IN F-4 PLANES, AND $80 MILLION IN OTHER SUPPLIES

- * SECOND, TO REMOVE THE EMBARGO ON COMMERCIAL SALES TO TURKEY. TODAY, TURKEY IS THE ONLY WESTERN COUNTRY WHICH IS NOT ALLOWED TO BUY COMMERCIAL MILITARY HARDWARE FROM THE U.S. -- AND NEITHER THE FOREIGN ASSISTANCE ACT NOR THE FOREIGN MILITARY SALES ACT CALLED FOR THIS EMBARGO.
- * THIRD, TO REMOVE THE SUSPENSION ON MILITARY SALES, CREDITS AND GUARANTIES FOR ITEMS WHICH TURKEY NEEDS TO FULFILL HER ROLE IN N.A.T.O.

ANY ONE OF THESE THREE PROVISIONS COULD BE CHANGED OR DROPPED.

IN ADDITION, THE BILL PROVIDES FOR REPORTS TO CONGRESS -- URGES

THE PRESIDENT TO START DISCUSSIONS WITH GREECE ABOUT HER ECONOMIC

AND MILITARY NEEDS -- AND MAKES CLEAR THAT NO GRANT MILITARY AID

WOULD GO TO TURKEY.
