THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

DeMolay Week, 1975

As a member of the Order of DeMolay, I am especially pleased to join in the celebration of DeMolay Week. This is a fine opportunity for those who have benefited from its programs to express their appreciation for this organization.

By building the qualities of good citizenship and constructive civic involvement, its members greatly strengthen the fiber of our democratic life. I applaud the example you set in communities across America and hope that it will continue to inspire and uplift your fellow citizens.

Gerald R. Ford
