

The original documents are located in Box 1, folder “Secretaries Week Message, 1975” of the Eliska Hasek Files at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Gerald R. Ford donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Secretaries Week, 1975

In the rush of our daily lives, there is much that becomes second nature, much that we unintentionally take for granted. Nothing is more second nature to the work of government and industry in this country than the efficiency of the secretary.

It is most appropriate, therefore, that all across our country in every area of endeavor we set aside the week of April 20 - 26 to honor the nation's secretaries.

Countless Americans daily express their understood trust in their secretaries. We charge them with many vital details, on which much of our success depends. At this time, we all have a perfect opportunity to recognize this fact and salute the accuracy, diligence and -- above all -- devotion of the American secretary.

Gerald R. Ford

