

The original documents are located in Box 1, folder “DeMolay Week Message, 1976” of the Eliska Hasek Files at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Gerald R. Ford donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

DeMolay Week, 1976

As an Honorary Grand Master of the Order of DeMolay, I am delighted to participate in this special observance.

Communities across our country have been strengthened and the lives of countless individuals brightened by the Order's many worthwhile activities. On this occasion, it is appropriate that we express our thanks to those who contribute to the continuing success of the Order and of its important role in building better citizens in an atmosphere of fellowship and brotherhood.

On behalf of all Americans, I salute the Order's accomplishments and wish all its chapters a rewarding and productive year.

Gerald R. Ford

