TALKING POINTS FOR TELEPHONE CALL TO THE WEST MICHIGAN SHORES COUNCIL, BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA EAGLE RECOGNITION BANQUET, PANT LIND HOTEL, GRAND RAPIDS, MICHIGAN, MARCH 2, 1976, AT 8:30 P.M.

It's great to be able to talk to my friend and former scoutmaster, Charles Kindel -- and to the rest of you who are gathered there who received your Eagle rank during 1975.

I know Charles shares with me the pride I feel at our special relationship to the Kindel-Ford Chapter of the National Eagle Scout Association.

And I feel specially honored to have my name associated with this class.

Let me just say a word or two about the part scouting has played in my life.

I started out in scouting as a Tenderfoot a good many years ago. And those were great years -- unforgettable years.

But I don't think there was a prouder moment in my life than when I was privileged to become an Eagle Scout. I still have 90 were invited - 70 will attend the merit badge sash. And I still have that Eagle badge. It means as much to me today as it did then.

I worked hard for it. And I know the terrific feeling of accomplishment you all feel in attaining Eagle rank.

There is something wholesome and good about living by the Scout Oath and Law -- something that makes for better citizens, responsible citizens, and that is the backbone of our great Nation.

I think, even now, I could repeat the Scout Oath without a mistake.

And the Scout Law is one I will never forget: "A scout is trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean and reverent."

I can say to you, if you write the Scout Oath and Law in your hearts -- and live by them -- you will do better, you will be happier, you will make a greater contribution to your families, to your communities, and to your country. The ideals of scouting have meaning for you today, and tomorrow, and throughout your lives.
Enjoy what scouting offers to you in building character and good citizenship, and make a big effort to do your best. If you do this, you will be prepared to do a better job for your country in the years ahead.

Good luck. God bless you all.
