The Holton-Arms Students and Parents are raising money for the scholarship and endowment fund. The girls are having an Auction and Jamboree, Wed. April 23, and Sat., April 26, 1975, respectively. Mrs. Gerald Ford has graciously accepted to be Honorary Chairperson in co-operation with chairperson Mrs. Charles Camalier.

The Auction will be at Holton-Arms at 7:30 p.m. and have such interesting items as: A trip to Rome for two, round trip to Florida for four on the Auto Train, helicopter ride, Redskin tickets, steam cabinet, a pony, oil paintings, and many more. As an added attraction wine and cheese will be served.

The Jamboree has turned its emphasis to "Its a Small, Small, World," and will offer fun, games, pony rides, carnival rides, white elephants, art, plants, fresh vegetables, movies, cotton candy and all the things you expect to find under 'The Big Top.'

Everyone is welcome to join us to share in our good old fashioned outing and help us contribute to the thirty or more scholarships we offer to subsidize students' education.

Come One ! Come All ! Rain or Shine
