

The original documents are located in Box 7, folder “10/20/75 - Hunter Dinner” of the Sheila Weidenfeld Files at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Gerald Ford donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Some items in this folder were not digitized because it contains copyrighted materials. Please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library for access to these materials.

A2 Monday, October 20, 1975 THE WASHINGTON POST

A Highly Questionable Investment

Wash. Post 10/20/75

Never Rains but It Pours: If New York City goes under, it will apparently cost Jacqueline Onassis some $100,000 a year in income, according to Money magazine.

Seems she put the trust fund that Ari gave her into the city's municipal bonds, against expert advice. So now, being "asset rich and cash

Personalities

It was one of those weekends for the Fords: They went to a dinner for 118 Friday held by White House counsel Philip Buchen and his wife at the Chevy Chase Club. Guests were seated by astrological sign rather than protocol. Ford is a Cancer, Mrs. Ford an Aires: one of the better combinations.

After spending their second honeymoon "in a place no newspaper in the world will