SUBJECT:

Action Memo

Mrs. Ford has accepted the following out-of-house invitation:

EVENT: Luncheon

GROUP: League of Republican Women of the District of Columbia

DATE: Monday, January 12, 1976

TIME: 11:30 Reception

12:00 Luncheon

PLACE: Mayflower Hotel, Washington, D.C.

CONTACT: Mrs. Bruce E. Clark, President

O: 347-5113 H: 667-5109

PRESS: Ms. Dorese Bell, 966-4124

COMMENTS: Mrs. Ford was for many years an active member of the League of Republican Women of the District of Columbia and will attend their luncheon. She is also Honorary Chairman of the luncheon. The luncheon is called the "Frankie Welch Congressional Wives' Luncheon Style Show" and the style show will be presented by Frankie Welch.

Preceding the luncheon will be a reception. Mrs. Ford does not wish to spend a great deal of time at the reception and feels that the thrust of her attention should be upon the guests attending as opposed to the VIPs. I would think, however, that she might want to drop by for quick photographs at the conclusion of the reception. I might also mention that they are planning to have a baby elephant ("Gabriel") which should make for some enjoyable photographs. The file is attached.

Thank you.

Dear Miss Porter

Following our telephone conversation, I thought it would be helpful to put in a letter the big plans made for our fashion show and luncheon in the Mayflower Hotel ballroom, Monday, January 12th.

We are delighted to have the First Lady as our Honorary Chairman and the League is most hopeful she will make every effort to attend as our distinguished guest. We do need her help.

Since January is the first month of the new election year, the League plans to make this an important kickoff event to rally women to work extra hard for the victory of Republican candidates across the country as well as in the District. The program theme will be a call to all Republican women to rise up in the fighting "Spirit of 1976" to bring in at the home-stretch Republicans in the upcoming MRS, CLAIRE LEE CHENNAULT national and local elections.

MRS. J. WILLARD MARRIOTT, JR It would be a great boost to our national effort if the First Lady could participate at the luncheon by saying a few encouraging words - perhaps four or five minutes - to build contagious enthusiasm among Republican women, and to make them know the important role they play in final victory for our candidates.

> Advance publicity is vitally important to create a solid turnout for our "Spirit of 1976" luncheon. As I mentioned to you, the Wildlife Reserve in Largo, Maryland just happens to have a wonderful baby elephant named "Gabriel". The Director, William Natter, Jr., said it is quite possible to bring to the driveway of the White House this charming rascal, with your permission of course.

Mrs. Ford The White House Washington, D. C. 20006

Dear Mrs. Ford:

In just one month we have brought the League of Republican Women of D. C. to life again. For October and November we have had a steady stream of new members and reinstatements as you will notice from our November Bulletin which is enclosed.

Among our outstanding programs for the year, first priority is given to our "Frankie Welch Congressional Wives' Luncheon Style Show" to be staged at the Mayflower Hotel Ballroom on January 12th.

You are cognizant of our project, I am sure, through your discussion with Frankie regarding your Michigan Scarf and your conversations with Mrs. Weidenfeld regarding the famous Bicentennial Scarf.

In June of this year, as President of the Charles N. Crittenten benefit, I asked you to be my Honorary Chairman and you were gracious in consenting to do this.

I am now your recently elected President of the League of Republican Women of which you were a recent Director.

Will you please once again honor me by allowing us to use your name as our gracious Honorary Chairman for the January event, and in addition put a circle around the January date to also be present at our function. We would be so very delighted and appreciative.

We are expecting 800 guests and with your support the Style Show will certainly be a noteworthy success.

We are anticipating your affirmative support in our League's endeavor.

Fondly,

Mrs. Bruce Edmund Clark

Betty Ford: 'A Reur Not a Campaign D

By Donnie Radcliffe

Betty Ford called it "a reunion," not really a campaign "debut" because it was her club and she belongs to it.

Even so, there was the distinct feeling of election-year politics in the wind yesterday as 600 women turned out for a fashion show-luncheon of the League of Republican Women of the District of Columbia, at the Mayflower Hotel.

Advance billing of Mrs. Ford's presence had promised that she would launch "a national drive for all Republican women to rally behind Republican candidates for victory."

"When the going gets tough, Republican women get going," Mrs. Bruce E. Clark, league president, told the growd seated in the ballroom among stuffed elephants and a red, white and blue color scheme.

"I put my hear-hear to Mrs. Clark's remarks," Mrs. Ford told the audience. "With our getting going, we ought to have a very successful Republican year." She stopped short, however, of launching any national "Spirit of 1976" rally for the support of Republican women

The Mayflower Hotel ballroom was jammed with Republican partisans, including First Lady Betty Ford. "This is my club (League of Republican Women of The District of Columbia)," she told women assembled yesterday for a luncheon-fashion show. "I belong to it, and feel right at home."

A Betty Ford scarf was unveiled at yesterday's luncheon, and part of the $7 price will go to The White House Historical Association. The audience was filled with women who had just bought the scarves and couldn't wait to put them on.

Mrs. Ford, asked if she would actively campaign this year with her husband, said "I'll give any speeches I can, but I don't know as I'll be speaking on issues. I leave that up to him."
