MEMORANDUM TO: PETER SORUM
FROM: SUSAN PORTER J.P.
SUBJECT: Action Memo

Mrs. Ford has accepted the following out-of-town invitation:

EVENT: Luncheon
GROUP: Women's National Republican Club
DATE: Saturday, March 20, 1976
TIME: 11:45 VIP Reception, West Foyer
12:30 Luncheon, Ballroom
PLACE: Waldorf Astoria Hotel

H: (212) 777-4949
COMMENTS: Mrs. Ford has accepted the invitation of the Women's National Republican Club to attend their 55th Annual Luncheon to be held on March 20th at the Waldorf in New York. Susan Ford was also invited but has declined.

The Women's National Republican Club will present to Mrs. Ford their "Republican Woman of the Year Award". Barry Goldwater will be the main speaker, and Mrs. Douglas MacArthur will receive their "Affectionate Honor Award". Although I spoke originally with Mrs. John Lodge, the luncheon chairman, Mrs. McGrath has indicated she should probably serve as the contact. Mrs. Rudolf A. Bernatschke is the President. The occasion, judging from press reports, promises to be a gala one.

Although the luncheon is Saturday, Mrs. Ford would like to go to New York on Friday for some private appointments and remain overnight. Her departure will be determined by the times of the appointments which she does not yet know.

May I also suggest that you may wish to make a preliminary contact with the Parsons Award people at the time of your advance of the 20th event regarding Mrs. Ford's March 29th New York event. As of this writing I do not have those details but will have them by the time you return from California.

The file is attached.

Thank you.

Dear Mrs. Bernatschke,

This is to confirm my telephone conversation with Mrs. John Lodge that Mrs. Ford is happy to accept your kind invitation to attend the 55th Annual Luncheon of the Women's National Republican Club in New York on March 20th at the Waldorf-Astoria. I am sure Mrs. Ford would want me to convey her gratitude and her encouragement to all who are actively involved in preparations for this lovely occasion.

Dear Mrs. Ford,

As we discussed this morning, this is the invitation you were unable to accept ✓ last year and we held it for consideration this year because you hoped to do it. They would like to honor you with their "Woman of the Year Award". Being the national group, I hope you will be able to do this.

If you are planning to accept, I think it would be worthwhile to convey that to them at this time rather than waiting closer to the date.

Dear Miss Leonard:

May I seek your advice after you have read what I would love to have take place.

By way of introduction I am on the Board of Governors of Women's National Republican Club and my assignment is Chairman of the Calvin Coolidge Memorial Library.

On February 18, Wednesday we are planning a very fine dinner at the club -- from 6 to 7 in the George Washington Room we shall have cocktails and something lovely re the Bicentennial after which we will go to our Main Dining Room and enjoy dinner with a fine speaker and guests. We are calling it the George Washington Dinner.

Would it be possible that Susan Ford could be our guest? I want to invite several outstanding young people.

Helen Thomas will be our guest at a Tea on January 21st and I am happy to have a picture of a conference with President Ford. By the way he knows me in several things that we have done such as I am with the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame and on the National Council of Women, etc.

May I hear from you and thanks very much for anything you can do to help me.

CHOPIN SINGING SOCIETY CELEBRATES 75TH YEAR

By JOHN DWYER
News Critic

In the last year of the 19th Century a Polish-born organist choirmaster got together with nine singers and formed a Buffalo choir devoted to Polish music.

It was a modest start, guided by a love of singing and the great Polish traditions.

Director Boleslaus Michalski, also the organist at St. Adalbert's Church, couldn't have known in 1899 that he was launching one of the healthiest, liveliest, most versatile and long-lived community choruses in the country.

By 1912 the Chopin Singing Society Choir, now under the direction of Prof. Leon Olszewski, had won a prize in the national convention of the Singers Alliance of America.

THIS EVENING the Chopin Singing Society presents its 75th Anniversary Concert in Villa Maria auditorium (see additional details below in and popular airs. And as with works or arrangements of Chopin.

Past programs have been occasions for presenting works from the esteemed operatic composer Moniuszko and of Szymanowski just now being accepted in the music world at large as a truly inventive genius, 37 years after death.

This time there will be a revelation of fine music all too known by concertgoers in general when the Buffalo Philharmonic under Robert Cole performs a symphonic poem "Step" by Zygmunt Noskowski.

Noskowski, 1846-1909, earned fame in Germany and Switzerland

LIVELY ARTS

Entertainment Scene) and the Impressive array, in itself, will tell the story of growth and success.

It is now a 90-voice mixed chorus under its director of 21 years, Peter Gorecki. In May the singers will take part in national competition in Detroit, the largest group to enter the choral meet.

A remarkable thing about the chorus is that it has had just four directors in its 75 years. After the first two mentioned came the well-loved conductor and composer Arnold Cornelissen, who also led a symphony orchestra in Buffalo.

And now composer-director Gorecki, who will provide both orchestral and choral settings of his own for the anniversary program, along with classics, ballads, traditional and brought out his Symphony Major in Berlin, 1875. "Step" "The Steppes" is a colorful work of 1896, written after he had returned his homeland to head the Conservatory.

AS EVER, the Chopin Society divides its program between serious concert and musical entertainment, and they are in their new formal attire this year. The contrasted later in the program with bright folk costumes.

Another aspect of the society's startling 10-year success nationwide recognition, is the Young Pianists Competition entrants 16 and under.

Once again, one could imagine the scope this

CHOPIN SINGING SOCIETY choir as it was in 1904 under the direction of Prof. Leon Olszewski, the second of four directors in the society's 75-year history venture would attain. Its first winner in 1964, Diane Walsh, is a full-fledged touring recitalist, recently reviewed with high praise in the New York press. Claudia Hoca, winner a few seasons ago, is on her way to a recital career.

This year the Chopin Competition committee under chairman Sue Wardynski and executive secretary George Kelter has received nearly 50 audition tapes from young entrants from many states and Canada.

The society has awarded $10,000 in prizes in the decade, and the winners are given the opportunity to appear with the Buffalo Philharmonic.

In the 1960s, having sold out Kleinhans Music Hall in three annual programs, the society was chosen by WBEN-TV to appear in about 30 televised programs, a series that lasted until 1968.

In 1925 the society gave the city the sculpture of Chopin, the work of artist Joseph Mazur. After a half-century in Humboldt Park, the statue recently was placed in Symphony Circle, the Kleinhans Music Hall setting and home of the Philharmonic.

A SOURCE OF great pride to the society members is that they've done it all themselves, no grants or subsidies. And with their own funds they maintain their clubrooms at 18 Kosciuszko St., their home from 1947.

The society president for many years has been attorney Theodore V. Mikoll. His wife, Supreme Court Judge Ann Mikoll, is in there in the singing ranks along with her brother-in-law and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. James Mikoll. Judge Mikoll takes a deep interest in the chorus.

Theodore Mikoll's maternal grandfather, Albert Widzinski, was president in the 1920s and his uncle, John Mikolajczak, headed the society in 1931.

If you looked into the ranks in past years you'd be bound to find a mayor of Buffalo — Joseph Mruk and Steven Pankow in earlier times, current Mayor Stanley M. Makowski until the 1970s. If he can make it under the press of duties, Mayor Makowski will re-join the chorus this evening.

Congressman Thaddeus Dulski maintains his membership. His father, Joseph Dulski, took part in many programs.

NAMES THAT have made Polish history in Buffalo continue on in the chorus:

Stanley and Edward Halicki, 30 active years and more; past presidents Raymond and Alfred Fabiniak, now with daughter-in-law Judy in the group; past president Frederick Netzel, his wife and their sons, Frederick Jr. and James; John and Daniel Pocziwinski, adding to two family generations in the chorus.

John and Casimer Kedzierski were presidents, Casimer now active. Boleslaus Lemanski held the presidency for 15 years and Lawrence Nagowski has been a director for about 40 years;

The family names Czuprynski, Mazikowski, Jendrasiak, Kowalewski, Chodkowski, Fincel, Kujawa, Poczekaj, Kolbert, Zawierucha, Bągiński, Puchalski, Duchanski, Kulwicki have been distinctive in the long choral roll call.

nowski; social chairman, James E. Mikoll; chaplain, the Rev. John Kempczynski.

IT IS clearly one of the most highly organized community choruses in operation anywhere, and a strong factor is the board of directors. The present members are Stanley H. Zagora, Frederick S. Netzel, Lawrence Nagowski, Casimer Kedzierski, Max Czarnecki, Milton F. Bednarek, John Zabinski, Eugene Zawadzki, Daniel Pocziwinski, Edward Fabian, David Rutecki, Richard Szweda, Frank Kanja.

There is an intense sense of musical and family lineage in the chorus, and perhaps that is the secret of its extraordinary continuity over the years.

But along with the feeling of fellowship, the musical satisfaction, the extending of an august tradition, the Chopin singers get one more precious thing out of it. It's just plain fun.

a's Organizations:

Chopin Singing Society— Dedicated To the Preservation of Polish Music years ago, a Polish clergyman remarked that as long as Polish music shall be inculcated in the young people, Polish culture shall not die. As we look around the East Side of Buffalo and the city at large, there is one group that stands out as an example of an organization striving to make this vision a reality. This organization is the Chopin Singing Society. Since its organization 65 years ago, the group has continued to keep alive the music of its forefathers and in so doing keep alive Polish culture. Although the organization has undertaken many different community and social projects, the main standing area of their program is presenting Polish music.

The organization, which numbers some 500 members, includes an active choral group numbering 160. The group is aided by the Chopin's Ladies' Auxiliary, which numbers 200 members, from which the Ladies' Auxiliary has made up. All in all, the group boasts 700 members seeking the same goal. The members come from all parts of the city and the suburban areas. The group itself is directed by Peter Gorecki, who has been at the helm for ten years. He is assisted by Peter Luedig. This year the group shall have its own Dance Group, which shall be directed by the dancer Jan Sejda, who formerly worked at Maszowsze. The actual arrangements of the songs presented are done by Mr. Gorecki, and the selections are chosen by the club's Music Committee in concert with the director.

The success that the club has enjoyed in its choral program can be seen from the fact that they moved their program to Kleinhans Music Hall a few years ago and sold out the auditorium for their performance last year, the organization was invited to perform on television and they presented a series of concerts that appeared on Channel 4. Indeed, this television series has enabled the organization to carry on its end of preserving and promulgating Polish music through Polish music to the whole area.

Next year the club will compete in the National Choral Competition in Cleveland, Ohio and will also present three concerts on television. Besides these two programs, the group will also sing as the guest soloists at the German Day Celebration in May. The Kleinhans Music Hall appearance of the group as part of this program will be the first time a Polish group has participated.

Besides this attempt to keep Polish culture alive, the organization has been active in efforts to help the community through contributions to the United Fund, the Villa Maria Fund and other similar projects. They also sponsor receptions and other meetings similar to one they held for Postmaster Gronouski when he was in Buffalo last week. In all their civic programs, the Chopin Society has tried to improve the life of both the East Side community and the whole city.

The group also provides an atmosphere for its members to congregate and meet by sponsoring social activities and events. They hold closed parties for members in their clubrooms and open their clubrooms on certain occasions for parties, from which they can gain revenue for operating their programs and keeping up the clubrooms.

With this large concert program and the other programs in the community and social areas, one must wonder and quite naturally, how this organization is run and how are its programs executed. This is very simple to answer. A fourteen member Board of Directors along with six officers supervise all the Chopin Society programs. These men, active in politics, professions, or business, take time out of their busy careers to serve without pay to make this organization one of the most outstanding in the city.

It would not be fair to end any discussion of the Chopin Singing Society without mentioning the dynamic East side attorney that has led the group as its President the past three years. This man is Theodore V. Mikoll. Taking time out from a busy legal career, Mr. Mikoll has provided the type of leadership that has brought the organization forward in the modern era and has helped it make the adjustments that it had to make to keep up with the technological age we are in.

Miss Porter
The White House

Dear Miss Porter:

For 25 years I have assisted, as a member of the WNRC, in P.R. for the Annual Luncheon. Enclosed are some of the background items re me.

I am enclosing the two releases that just went out. Your advance man will get the list of State Chairmen for the lunch, I assume.

I am enclosing a few jotted thoughts for a "theme" for consideration for the acceptance remarks. Perhaps the thoughts may be useful.

Thank you for reading this and passing it along. My best to Rae zeeman.

Sincerely,

There will be quite a good Radio/TV + print press attending.

This is our bicentennial year.

The Salute to me is a Salute to our forefathers and what they represented. What is needed and wanted in this bi-centennial year is a return and re-establishment of those principles upon which our country was founded.

What is needed is a return of honesty and open putting-heads-together communication -- whether on a family basis or on a group basis, or on a governmental basis so that once again we can have a complete American Family Life and a restoration of confidence in each other. We must reverse the deteriorating American family life and the breaking down of communication. We must open our hearts and confront the problems that beset us and put our minds to the thought to achieve understandings and agreements as the basis on which to strengthen and grow together.

What is needed in government today is a government based on human understandings of the problems, with a high sense of truth and honesty if our country is to survive another 100 years. Our government officials have the responsibility to discover how they can constantly improve the level of integrity to a point where full trust in the administrative process has been restored. What is not needed is supermen--- or super women (joke) out to run the world at the cost of individual liberty. This can be done by ~~fixing~~ being more honest and straight with other men and women.

When we can restore and ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ rekindle the ability to communicate openly and honestly we know that we will have restored that which our forefathers instituted that is unique in the history of mankind.

THE WOMEN'S NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CLUB

presents this 1976

REPUBLICAN WOMAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

to

MRS. GERALD R. FORD

Elizabeth, "Betty" Ford, is the dynamic wife of the President of the United States. Outstanding among her fine qualities are her graciousness, her sense of public responsibility, her dedication to the Republican Party, and her courage, candor, and integrity.

As the Hostess of the White House, she has presided at official functions with grace, dignity, and charm. As a practitioner and patron of the arts, she has encouraged elevating the Bicentennial Celebration to the high plane of American Culture. As an advocate of excellence as the standard of selection, she has encouraged the President to appoint Republican women to high office. As a campaign worker, she has articulated the principles of the Republican Party. As a woman of courage and faith, she has triumphed over many incidents of adversity.

For her effectiveness in meeting the challenges of public life, for her outstanding qualities as a public and private citizen, and for the spirit of dedication that she has shown to the Republican Party throughout the years, the Board of Governors of the Women's National Republican Club is proud to present to Mrs. Gerald R. Ford its Republican Woman of the Year Award.

THE WOMEN'S NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CLUB

presents this 1976

OUTSTANDING YOUNG AMERICAN AWARD
DOROTHY STUART HAMILL

In winning for the United States the Gold Medal for Figure Skating in the 1976 Winter Olympic Games and the Women's World Figure Skating Championship as well, nineteen-year-old Dorothy Hamill displayed extraordinary artistry, virtuosity, charm, sportsmanship, and self-mastery.

Inspired by the art of choreography, she transformed her skating program into the beauty of ballet.

Motivated by the desire to excel, she captivated her audience by the perfection of her performance.

Animated by the spirit of self-reliance that characterizes American amateur sports, she competed successfully against a number of athletes, subsidized by the countries they represented.

Disciplined by the strength of her character, she developed her ability as a student, her talent as a skater, and her personality as an individual to become a well-rounded young woman of integrity.

For achievement of the highest order against spirited competition and for her extraordinary qualities as a person and as a performer, the Board of Governors of the Women's National Republican Club is proud to present to Dorothy Stuart Hamill its first "Outstanding Young American" Award.

presents this 1976

Distinguished Political Service Award
to
THE HONORABLE BARRY GOLDWATER

Barry Goldwater! What a multitude of historic events, what outstanding qualities of heart and mind this name conjures forth for the American people.

Still in the fullness of his powers, Senator Goldwater has in his life time become a veritable legend—Air Force General, rancher, businessman, statesman and national leader he has repeatedly plunged headlong into the breach. Careless of his personal fortunes he has often shown a deep awareness of the true nature of the challenge. Frequently, amid the slings and arrows, he has been the conscience of America. A man of controversy! A man of destiny! He symbolizes the qualities of courage and lofty principle which we must recapture if we are to fulfill our national promise. Barry Goldwater holds our feet to the fire of the responsibilities which are inseparable from freedom.

Because of his integrity, his courage, his dedicated service to the Republican Party, the Women's National Republican Club is proud to present its Distinguished Political Service Award to an outstanding Republican, a true patriot, a great American, The Honorable Barry Goldwater.

THE WOMEN'S NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CLUB, Inc.
3 West 51 Street, New York City

Founded in 1921

Our Club House---

Our handsomely furnished Club House was opened in 1934. Just off Fifth Avenue, opposite Rockefeller Center, it affords members a centrally located meeting place close to the center of cultural, civic and political activities.

There are attractive Assembly Rooms, the George Washington Room, the charming Maude Wetmore Memorial Room, a lovely Lounge for meeting guests, a Main Dining Room and smaller Private Dining Rooms. On the ninth floor is a large Solarium and Terrace where buffet luncheon is served in the summer. The Calvin Coolidge Memorial Library is photographed below. There are also thirty Bedrooms (each with bath) for members and their husbands. A card room adjacent to the Library is always available for afternoon Bridge games.

The Calvin Coolidge Memorial Library, well stocked with rare volumes for reference on government and political science; also biographies and other current books. A quiet place for reading, study and research

Two views of the Ruth Baker Pratt Lounge

—The Purpose of the Club—

To advocate, promote and maintain the principles of Republicanism as enunciated by the Republican Party

To direct and interest in politics those who have heretofore been more or less indifferent to their political duties

To teach the purpose and value of political parties,

To maintain a club house that will serve as an adult education center for these purposes.

and the relationship of party to government

To guard and defend the purity of the ballot box

To promote the cause of good government

To perform such other work as may best conserve the interests of the Republican Party

What is the Advantage of Membership in The Club?

Members of the Women's National Republican Club can identify themselves with the Republican Party and assist in its direction and support, far more effectively than they could as individuals.

It is a Marquis policy to offer biographees the opportunity to reserve copies of the directory in which their sketch appears, thus assuring delivery despite the fact that press runs are limited as closely as possible to an amount equal to prepublication orders and the known requirements of trade and reference centers. In addition, significant discounts on prepublication reservations are also available to biographees, as detailed in the accompanying letter. The enclosed form validating these discounts is, of course, restricted to use by the biographee named in the proof above.

It is the purpose of Marquis Who's Who directories to provide a convenient public record of information about the lives and careers of those outstanding men and women in contemporary society. The Marquis Who's Who editors continually revise this information so as to assure its timeliness and comprehensiveness. Individuals whose biographical sketches are included in Marquis Who's Who directories are best able to provide the data that will make this painstaking task successful. Thus, your cooperation is earnestly requested. Please indicate below on this sheet any alterations or additions necessary to bring your sketch up to date. To obviate the necessity of our sending out another compiler's copy sheet, please return this one as soon as possible, even if no changes are necessary. PLEASE DO NOT REWRITE the sketch, as it has already been set in type as shown. Since scattered minor alterations may necessitate complete resetting, the editors will appreciate your cooperation in limiting changes to the necessary minimum.

European Court Urged To Endorse Equal Pay As Women's Right

Special to THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

LUXEMBOURG—The European Court of Justice was urged to endorse women's right to equal pay for equal work, and to approve retroactive damages back to 1962.

The case involves a suit brought by Mrs. Gabrielle Defrenne, a former stewardess for the Belgian Airline Sabena, who contends she received a pension inferior to that given male stewards. But far more could be involved.

Alberto Trabucchi, the court's advocate general, who serves as impartial adviser to the Common Market tribunal, said article 119 of the Treaty of Rome has given the "equal-pay" principle the force of law since the section became effective in 1962, and it didn't need any national laws to back it up. The Treaty of Rome created the Common Market.

Mr. Trabucchi questioned whether Mrs. Defrenne's pension was "pay" in the technical sense. But a court official said that, even if it rules against her, the court could follow the advocate general's advice in endorsing the general right to equal pay.

If so, this could open the door to lawsuits by women all over Europe, with potential retroactive damages amounting to the equivalent of billions of dollars. The British and Irish governments, particularly worried about this, sent lawyers to argue against Mrs. Defrenne's case, even though their retroactivity would date back to only 1973 when they joined the Common Market.

ANALYSIS:

Due to WOMEN'S INTERNATIONAL YEAR and its REAL PURPOSE, BANKRUPTING the FREE WORLD, the above has come about. Doubtless to say, WE ARE FOR EQUALITY FOR WOMEN, but what the "SO-CALLED" WOMEN'S MOVEMENT advocates WE DO NOT! Women already are in possession of ALL THEIR RIGHTS in AMERICA, and, those who believe in, follow and ENDORSE the "so-called" womens movement are aiding them in their main purpose, the fall of our nation, and of the free world!

Please note that: THE "SO-CALLED" WOMEN'S MOVEMENT IS A MOVEMENT "BY" WOMEN, AND "NOT FOR" WOMEN!

P.S. Just a thought! If a European firm must pay $25 per week DATING BACK TO 1962..$18,200 / interest*...+ Bonus for each of the 14 years....TO EACH WOMAN..... RESULT: BANKRUPTCY FOR CO., AND IF ENOUGH COMPANIES FALL, SO DOES THE NATION! If the stewardess had ONLY wanted what she says is due her, she would sued Sabena, not bring about the fall of the free world thru the methods she is using!

* TRY COMPUTING IT!

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE!

Mrs. Ford has refused to meet with ANY of the LEADERS (other than those who are part of International Women's Year and Women's Lib groups!) These women only represent a small number of voters of this state and nation. I personally have written to Mrs. Ford on three occasions, and to date have not had even the courtesy of an answer! I have constantly requested a meeting with her, and her silence has been my answer, and the answer to the many, many leaders who have attempted to speak with her.

A few questions need answering:

1. Why has Mrs. Ford refused to speak with any of us?
2. Why does she only speak to the Libbers who do not represent the thinking of the majority of the women in this nation?
3. Why has she pushed the ERA, when Sen. Sam Ervin, Cong. Emanuel Celler, Felix Frankfurter, Bessie Stinson of Missouri, Professor Paul Freund of the Harvard Law School, (considered the Dean of the Constitutional Attorneys), Congresswoman Leonore K. Sullivan, Myra K. Wolfgang (International V.P. Hotel & Restaurant Employees and Bartender Union) who not only heads a union, but is also a member of the Michigan Wage Deviation Board), Phyllis Schlafly-National Chairman of STOP ERA, TAYLOR CALDWELL - writer, Naomi McDaniel, Pres. (National WOMEN IN INDUSTRY), Rescoe Pound (former dean of Harvard Law School), Albert J. Harne (Dean, College of Law-Univ. Illinois), Leon Green (Former Dean Northwestern Univ. Law School), E. Blythe Stason (Dean of Law School-Univ. Mich.), Everett Fraser - (Emeritus Dean of Law - Univ. of Minnesota), Glenn A. McCleary (Dean of Law School-Univ. of Missouri) Douglas B. Maggs - (Professor of Law, Duke Univ., and former Solicitor, U.S. Dept. of Labor), etc. etc. etc.
4. Why has she turned her back on the fact that 17 states voted on the Federal ERA this past year, 16 said NO and one state said yes by ONE VOTE and will rescind! New York and New Jersey said NO to the State ERA in a BIG UPSET, and Kentucky, and 18 other states are in the process of RESCINDING THEIR APPROVAL---Missouri and Arizona said NO FOR THE SECOND TIME. THE PEOPLE SAY NO...AND MRS. FORD SAYS YES...WHETHER WE LIKE IT OR NOT...& WE DO NOT LIKE IT!

*FOOTNOTE

We believe (per the article in Thursday 3/11/76 Wall St. Journal) as the British & Irish do, that this is a move to bankrupt the free world. As the women's movement in the U.S. is "BY" women & "NOT FOR" women, we feel that this $ should NOT be given to them, for we feel that this is the use to which it would be put. Let us NOT FORGET...IT IS CALLED THE INTERNATIONAL women's year group!

5. Why has she supported the allocation of 5 million dollars of our tax money to the groups that DO NOT REPRESENT THE MAJORITY OF WOMEN IN THIS NATION? NEEDLESS TO SAY, WE ARE FOR EQUAL RIGHTS FOR WOMEN, BUT WE ALREADY "HAVE" ALL OUR RIGHTS, AND NOW CALL FOR A SHOW OF SENSIBLE RESPONSIBILITY FROM "ALL" THE WOMEN OF THIS NATION, STARTING WITH THE WIFE OF OUR PRESIDENT! The RESPONSIBLE WOMEN OF THIS STATE AND NATION CALL FOR THE RESCINDING OF THE FEDERAL ERA, AND THE 5 MILLION DOLLARS THAT CONGRESS VOTED FOR THE USE OF WOMEN'S LIB!^{See FOOTNOTE}

6. Why does she favor:

- a. Drafting of women & mothers into the armed forces & placing them into combat? We do not! Not even Israel does this!
- b. The end to women's protective rape laws?
- c. Women not being covered under their husband's S/S earnings any longer. IS SHE WILLING TO FORFEIT HER PENSION?
- d. Taking away the S/S coverage from widows now living on their deceased husband's earning. (see "c")
- e. ^{loss of} Husband's right to support wife & children, and ^{loss of} wife's right to sue him for desertion and support.
- f. ^{The loss of} ALL WOMEN'S WORK PROTECTIVE LAWS?
- g. The end to FEMALE COLLEGES SUCH AS SMITH & WELLESELY?

We could go on and on, but we ask, NO, WE DEMAND that the wife of the President of our nation MEET WITH US, THE RESPONSIBLE WOMEN WHO ARE THE MAJORITY IN OUR NATION, FOR IS NOT HER PLACE TO CONSULT"ALL OF THE PEOPLE?"

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD — SENATE

that in this country, presumably due to the greater longevity of women, a large proportion of estates, both intestate and under wills of decedents, are administered by surviving widows.

Section 15-314 is restricted in its operation to those situations where competing applications for letters of administration have been filed by both male and female members of the same entitlement class established by § 15-312. In such situations, § 15-314 provides that different treatment be accorded to the applicants on the basis of their sex; it thus establishes a classification subject to scrutiny under the Equal Protection Clause.

In applying that clause, this Court has consistently recognized that the Fourteenth Amendment does not deny to States the power to treat different classes of persons in different ways. Barbier v. Connally, 113 U.S. 27 (1885); Lindsley v. Natural Carbonic Gas Co., 220 U.S. 61 (1911); Railway Express Agency, Inc. v. New York, 336 U.S. 106 (1949); McDonald v. Board of Election Commissioners, 394 U.S. 802 (1968). The Equal Protection Clause of that Amendment does, however, deny to States the power to legislate that different treatment be accorded to persons placed by a statute into different classes on the basis of criteria wholly unrelated to the objective of that statute. A classification "must be reasonable, not arbitrary, and must rest upon some ground of difference having a fair and substantial relation to the object of the legislation, so that all persons similarly circumstanced shall be treated alike." Royster Guano Co. v. Virginia, 153 U.S. 412, 415 (1920). The question presented by this case, then, is whether a difference in the sex of competing applicants for letters of administration bears a national relationship to a state objective that is sought to be advanced by the operation of §§ 15-312 and 15-314.

In upholding the latter section, the Idaho Supreme Court concluded that its objective was to eliminate one area of controversy when two or more persons, equally entitled under § 15-312, seek letters of administration and thereby present the probate court "with the issue of which one should be named." The court also concluded that where such persons are not of the same sex, the elimination of females from consideration "is neither an illogical nor arbitrary method devised by the legislature to resolve an issue that would otherwise require a hearing as to the relative merits . . . of the two or more petitioning relatives. . . ." 93 Idaho, at 514, 465 P. 2d, at 638.

Clearly the objective of reducing the workload on probate courts by eliminating one class of contests is not without some legitimacy. The crucial question, however, is whether § 15-314 advances that objective in a manner consistent with the command of the Equal Protection Clause. We hold that it does not. To give a mandatory preference to members of either sex over members of the other, merely to accomplish the elimination of hearings on the merits, is to make the very kind of arbitrary legislative choice forbidden by the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment; and whatever may be said as to the positive values of avoiding intrafamily controversy, the choice in this context may not lawfully be mandated solely on the basis of sex.

We note finally that if § 15-314 is viewed merely as a modifying appendage to § 15-312 and as aimed at the same objective, its constitutionality is not thereby saved. The objective of § 15-312 clearly is to establish degrees of entitlement of various classes of persons in accordance with their varying degrees and kinds of relationship to the intestate. Regardless of their sex, persons within any one of the numerated classes of that section are similarly situated with respect to that objective. By providing dissimilar treatment for men and women who are thus similarly situated, the challenged section violates the Equal Protection Clause. Royster Guano Co. v. Virginia, supra.

The judgment of the Idaho Supreme Court is reversed and the case remanded for further proceedings not inconsistent with this opinion.

Reversed and remanded.

(Statement of Paul Freund, Dean Pound, and other lawyers and legal scholars in opposition to the equal rights amendment)

These lawyers and legal scholars—regardless of party, and regardless of political or economic views—oppose the so-called equal rights amendment, and endorse the statement set forth herein, on the legal implications of the proposed amendment, prepared by Professor Paul Freund, of the Harvard Law School:

Roscoe Pound, School of Law, University of California, Former Dean, Harvard Law School.

Clarence Manion, Former Dean of the College of Law, University of Notre Dame, Indiana.

Albert J. Harno, Dean of the College of Law, University of Illinois.

Charles Warren, Constitutional Lawyer and Author of "The Supreme Court in United States History", Washington, D.C.

Walter Frank, Lawyer, New York City.

Leon Green, Professor of Law, University of Texas. Former Dean, School of Law, Northwestern University.

Dorothy Kenyon, Lawyer and former Judge of Municipal Court, New York City.

Prof. M. R. Kirkwood, Palo Alto, California, Monte M. Lemann, Lawyer and former President, Louisiana State Bar Association, New Orleans.

E. Blythe Stason, Dean of the Law School, University of Michigan.

Harry Shulman, Sterling Professor of Law, Yale University Law School.

William H. Holly, United States District Judge, Chicago.

Everett Fraser, Emeritus Dean of Law School, University of Minnesota. Professor of Law, Hastings College of Law, University of California.

Walter Gellhorn, Professor of Law, Columbia University Law School.

Glenn A. McCleary, Dean of the Law School, University of Missouri.

Douglas B. Maggs, Professor of Law, Duke University Law School and Former Solicitor, U.S. Department of Labor.

The following statement on legal implications of proposed Federal equal rights amendment has been endorsed by the Deans and Professors of leading Law Schools and by the eminent attorneys, jurists, and constitutional lawyers listed above.

The proposed amendment to the Constitution reads as follows:

"Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex. Congress and the several States shall have power, within their respective jurisdictions, to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

"This amendment shall take effect three years after the date of ratification."

If anything about this proposed amendment is clear, it is that it would transform every provision of law concerning women into a constitutional issue to be ultimately resolved by the Supreme Court of the United States. Every statutory and common law provision dealing with the manifold relation of women in society would be forced to run the gauntlet of attack on constitutional grounds. The range of such potential litigation is too great to be readily foreseen, but it would certainly embrace such diverse legal provisions as those relating to a widow's allowance, the obligation of family support and grounds for divorce, the age of majority and the right of annulment of marriages, and the maximum hours of labor for women in protected industries.

Not only is the range of the amendment of indefinite extent, but, even more important, the fate of all this varied legislation would be left highly uncertain in the face of judicial review. Presumably, the amendment would set up a constitutional yardstick of absolute equality between men and women in all legal relationships. A more flexible view, permitting reasonable differentiation, can hardly be regarded as the object of the proposal, since the Fourteenth Amendment has long provided that no state shall deny to any person the equal protection of the laws, and that Amendment permits reasonable classifications while prohibiting arbitrary legal discrimination. If it were intended to give the courts the authority to pass upon the propriety of distinctions, benefits and duties as between men and women, no new guidance is given to the courts, and this entire subject, one of unusual complexity, would be left to the unpredictable judgments of courts in the form of constitution decisions.

Such decisions could not be changed by act of the legislature. Such a responsibility upon the courts would be doubtless as unwelcome to them as it would be inappropriate. As has been stated, however, the proposal evidently contemplates no flexibility in construction but rather a rule of rigid equality. This branch of the dilemma is as repelling as the other. It appears to be accepted by what is currently the most authoritative statement on this Amendment—the Report of the House Judiciary Committee, H. Rep. 907, 79th Cong. 1st sess., on H. J. Res. 49 dated July 12, 1945. The majority of the Committee appears to recognize that under the Amendment the many laws protecting the safety and welfare of women in industry would necessarily fail. The Committee states: "To say the least of the matter, many of the large organizations of women represented in hearings before the committee have expressed a sincere desire to waive the so-called preferential benefits now accorded to women by various laws so as to permit them to follow economic activities from which they are now excluded."

It would not be feasible to attempt to enumerate the wide variety of laws and rules of the common law which would fall under the impact of the Amendment. Some conception of their scope may, however, be given by recalling the variety of relationships in which women stand in the community. These relationships may be summarized as (a) wage earner; (b) member of a family; (c) citizen; (d) individual. The law has recognized and attempted to deal with these relationships in a concrete way. Doubtless there are difficulties and anachronisms in the law which should be remedied. But the method adopted by the Amendment is to ignore the basis for all that has been at the foundation of these measures, and to substitute an abstract rule of thumb. The practical effect of such a course can be suggested by referring briefly to each of the four categories mentioned above.

(a) As wage earners. One of the most familiar forms of legislation is that which confers special protection on women in industry, through the prohibition of employment in hazardous occupations and through regulation of night work and maximum hours of labor. Presumably the long struggle to place these protective measures on the statute books would be set at naught by the adoption of the Amendment. Specifically, such statutes would apparently have to be held invalid as denying to women the equal "right" to work or as denying to men the

A Prize Day for Betty

BETTY FORD, THE CHARISMATIC FIRST LADY, will arrive in New York on the morning of March 20 to receive the Republican Woman of the Year award from the Women's National Republican Club.

Francesca (Mrs. John Davis) Lodge, chairman of the luncheon that noon in the Waldorf-Astoria Ballroom, honoring Mrs. Ford, is thrilled with the response to invitations. They have another draw in Sen. Barry Goldwater, who will receive the Distinguished Political Service Award and make a little speech besides. Oh yes, and Mrs. Douglas MacArthur, that much admired lady, will be there, too, to receive the Affectionate Honor award. Such a bunch of stars.

were such as Mrs. Herbert Brownell, Mrs. George Bragg, the Hon. Katherine St. George, Jane Pickens Langley, Rosemary McGrath, Mrs. John Whelchel Finger, Mrs. Theodore Halligan, Mrs. Keith Woodeson, Mrs. Arthur Gary and Barbara Wainscott, who is chief New York deputy for the bicentennial. Any democrat who tried to cross the portals would have been beaten with a stick.

Amanda Burden, Mrs. William Paley's daughter, helicoptered rent for the summer. She was accompanied by her current constant out (and back) to Southampton last weekend seeking a house to companion, Steve Ross, head of Warner Communications. So what else is new?

Society's best known orange grower, Peter Pulitzer, and his recent bride, the former Roxanne Dixon, have cut out of Palm Beach for the nonce and settled for a house in nearby low-keyed Vero Beach, closer to his citrus groves.

In addition to all that fruit picking and packing, the Pulitzers (he's a member of the publishing family) are building a yacht, ocean-going, of course. During their recent safari to Africa they caught wanderlust. It's one way of getting out of Palm Beach.

Josh Commands Full Attention

Josh Logan's friends brayed a dark night to hear "Mr. Theater" himself in his first performance as a lecturer at Town Hall. He was a hit. Cheering his anecdotes about such as Dietrich, Bayer Mary Martin, Paul Newman and Marilyn Monroe were Mrs. William Woodward, Drew Dudley, Phyllis and Bob Wagner, Sandy and Charles Gilman, Adolph Green, Sisi Cahan and hundreds of theater buffs. Josh's answers were better than the questions that followed the lecture. When someone asked about his forth-coming book, "Josh," he said that his wife had forbidden him to plug it. Really?

After all that was over, the Logans received in the red Victorian living room of their River House apartment, with Nedda Logan greeting the throng in a caftan in shades of peach and apricot.

Rallying Round for Rock U

The New York chapter of ARCS (Achievement Rewards for College Scientists) will celebrate the 75th anniversary of the Rockefeller University by giving a luncheon gala for Mrs. Vincent Astor at the Pierre on March 10. David Rockefeller will come over from his bank to present an award to Brooke Astor (she has given $2 million to Rockefeller University to establish two fellowships) and former astronaut Michael Collins will come up from the Smithsonian Institution, where he's the boss, to give the keynote address.

Happy Rockefeller has reserved a front table and others who have dipped into their gold cookie jars to buy tickets include Mrs. Andrew Heiskell, the Cyrus Vances, Dr. and Mrs. Howard Rusk,

Responding to continued pressure for him to quit, which he identified as being from the White House and party hierarchy, he said: "As the American general said at the Battle of the Bulge when the Germans asked him to surrender, 'Nuts.' I am in this campaign to stay and to win." -- (3/21/76)

Winner Betty Has a Shrug for Ronnie
(By Robert Carroll, excerpted, N.Y. Daily News)

Betty Ford, happy about the "excellent vibrations" she's picking up along the campaign trail charmed a luncheon crowd at the Waldorf-Astoria Saturday, graciously accepted a woman-of-the-year award and neatly sidestepped reporters' questions about the future of Ronald Reagan, who wants her husband's job.

"I think the choice is his," said Mrs. Ford at a preluncheon news conference when asked whether Reagan should quit his quest of the Republican presidential nomination, as several Republican governors suggested Frida. "I think it's a very healthy situation," said Mrs. Ford of the Reagan challenge. "Competition is one of the best things as far as politics is concerned."

As for her own campaigning, Mrs. Ford said: "It's pretty exciting, I admit. It's something I never experienced." Radiant, but obviously a trifle nervous at the crush of reporters, photographers and television cameramen, she said she had found her campaign audiences "warm and friendly and I get excellent vibrations. They are very impressed by the improvement in the situation from what it was a year ago."

Earlier yesterday the President's wife added a personal touch to her campaigning by calling Mayor Beame at Gracie Mansion and wishing him a happy 70th birthday. She also told him New York "is one of my favorite cities." -- (3/21/76)

Tower Discounts Chances of Ford-Reagan Ticket

"Ronald Reagan will forfeit a chance of becoming the Republican party's vice-presidential nominee this year if he continues to oppose President Ford for the top spot on the ticket," Sen. John Tower (R-Tex.) said Saturday. Tower, who heads Ford's Texas campaign, also said a loss in next Tuesday's N.C. primary would represent a knockout blow for Reagan. AP -- (3/21/76)

Those Certain Smiles

champion was given the "key" to her hometown of Greenwich, Conn., in observance of Dorothy Hamill Day. She is still mulling her entrance into the world of professional ice skating entertainment.

Princess Margaret did not shoulder her share of royal duties in the months before her separation from Lord Snowdon, three London newspapers charged yesterday.

"To be frank, she hasn't earned her 35,000 pounds (about $70,000) a year," said The Sunday People in a front-page editorial. The Sunday Mirror said Princess Anne, Margaret's niece and Queen Elizabeth's daughter, had taken on extra royal duties "because of Margaret's inability to pull her full weight in recent months."

A Sunday Express columnist said he felt sorry for the princess but that if she couldn't "obey the royal rules," she should quit the royal life.

Meanwhile, in a comment on the separation, Lord Snowdon said in Sydney, Australia, "I am naturally desperately sad in every way that this had to come."

He later told correspondents: "Just call me Tony." This statement followed unconfirmed reports that he no longer wished to be known as Lord Snowdon.

Marilyn Monroe reportedly once told an interviewer that she was "hooked on sex" the way an alcoholic is hooked on liquor or a junkie on drugs.

"No sex is wrong if there's love in it," the late movie star, who committed suicide in 1962, was quoted as saying in excerpts from a new book published in the April issue of the Ladies Home Journal.

Monroe is said to have made the remarks to British journalist William J. Weatherby, who interviewed her between 1960 and 1962. His book "Conversations With Marilyn," is scheduled to be published by Mason-Charter Publishers Inc. in April.

Weatherby writes that Monroe told him she was having an affair with a Washington politician, but she didn't identify him. "Only problem is he's married right now," she said. "And he's famous, so we have to meet in secret."

There're two changes out of six that Britain's next first lady will be an American.

Two of the six cabinet ministers campaigning for election as leader of the ruling Labor Party have American wives. Environment Minister Anthony Crosland's wife, journalist and writer Susan Barnes, hails from Baltimore. Energy Secretary Tony Benn's wife, Caroline, a novelist active in disputes over British education, comes from Cincinnati.

Both women are 47 years old, have grown children and were students at Vassar, where they knew each other.

Film director Federico Fellini is set to resume shooting his movie spectacular "Casanova" on Tuesday. He stopped production three months ago after exhausting his 3 million pound budget and completing only 60 per cent of the production. Producer Alberto Grimaldi, who has been feuding with Fellini, agreed to put up an additional 750,000 pounds. The film is scheduled for release at the end of the year.

Betty Ford was in New York over the weekend attending a performance of the Broadway hit "Chorus Line"

Eugene A. Cernan, the last Apollo astronaut to walk on the moon, is retiring from the space corps on July 1 at age 42. . . . A rare, posed photograph of 70-year-old reclusive Greta Garbo appears in the April issue of Ladies' Home Journal. The photograph was taken in Sweden last summer by her friend Count Carl Johan Bernadotte. . . . Scores of film and political personalities have paid tribute to Italian filmmaker Luchino Visconti, who died Wednesday at age 69 of a heart attack.

First Lady Named Woman of the Year By a G.O.P. Group

By THOMAS RONAN

Betty Ford was named by the Women's National Republican Club yesterday as the Republican Woman of the Year.

The citation accompanying the club's annual award, given at a Waldorf-Astoria Hotel luncheon attended by near 1,000 guests, praised her "for her effectiveness in meeting the challenges of public life, for her outstanding qualities as a public and private citizen and for the spirit of dedication that she has shown to the Republican Party throughout the years."

In a brief speech of acceptance, the President's wife echoed a plea made earlier by Senator Barry Goldwater of Arizona, the principal speaker, for unity in the party. She was warmly applauded by her fellow Republicans.

Mrs. Ford also told newsmen that in campaigning with the President she had received "good vibrations," that people were warm and friendly and "seemed impressed with the improvement in the country's situation since a year ago."

When she was asked about the fight former Gov. Ronald Reagan of California is making against her husband for the Republican Presidential nomination, she said she thought it "a very healthy situation because competition is one of the best things in politics as far as I am concerned."

Mrs. Ford seemed unperturbed when told that about 300 persons were picketing the hotel in protest against her support of the proposed equal rights amendment. She said they had a right to their own opinion, as she did.

The club gave Mr. Goldwater its Distinguished Political Service Award; Mrs. Douglas MacArthur, widow of the general, its Affectionate Honor Award and Dorothy Hamill, the Olympic champion skater, its Outstanding Young American Award.

Chris Evert Named Best Woman Athlete

The first Woman Athlete of the World award was presented to Chris Evert yesterday at a luncheon held in her honor at Gallagher's Steak House. Miss Evert, who won $362,227 last year in capturing the United States, French and Italian tennis opens, the Virginia Slims and other tournaments, was presented with the Haig and Haig trophy and a check for $10,000.

"I want to be No. 1 in 1976, too," she said. "I have no plans to quit, but you never know. I may get married or something." She also expressed a desire to change her "Miss Stoneface" image. Though she could never scream like Billie Jean King, or throw a tantrum like some other players, she said there would be some changes.

"I've already cried a few times in tough situations, you know," she said.

When asked if she wanted to take the $10,000 check with her, Miss Evert politely declined. "I'm afraid I'd lose it," she said.

"Have you ever lost any?" she was asked. "Only a few $25,000 ones," she said.

Because he took a heavier course-load than most of his classmates, Archie Griffin received a degree in business administration from Ohio State University yesterday. Most of his class will graduate in June.

"I had real good professors," said the two-time winner of the Heisman Trophy. "They understood some of the problems I was going through, like times when I had to leave and speak. They gave me an opportunity to make up my work. At Ohio State, my education has been a quality one and things have been just beautiful for me."

Griffin, 21 years old, is the leading ground-gainer in the history of college football.

He will marry Loretta La-fitte of Cleveland on June 26, and will presumably report to pro football training camp shortly after the wedding.

To replace Bobby Dodd, who is retiring as athletic director of Georgia Tech at the end of June, Doug Weaver has been named to take over the same position that he had held at Southern Illinois for the last three years. Dodd has been athletic director for the Engineers since 1950.

Weaver, 45, was a line-backer at Michigan State from 1950 to 1952 and served in the Air Force before taking assistant football coaching positions at Michigan State and Missouri. He was head coach at Kansas State from 1960 to 1966, then served as an assistant under Pepper Rodgers at Kansas for three years. He was also defensive coordinator under Rodgers at the University of California, Los Angeles, from 1971 to 1973 before moving on to Southern Illinois.

Mrs. Betty Ford will be on hand to present Dorothy Hamill with the National Women's Republican Club's Outstanding Young Woman of the Year Award here today. Miss Hamill, who arrived here on Thursday after winning gold medals in figure skating at both the Olympic Games and the world championship competition, will also be honored tomorrow in day-long ceremonies in Greenwich, Conn.

Miss Hamill, 19, has announced her retirement as an amateur skater and will confer with her father, Chalmers Hamill Jr., on offers from ice shows to turn professional.
