24th September 1975.

Dear Miss Dunbar,

Thank you for your letter of 22 September suggesting a responsible interview with Mrs. Ford. I tried to ring you today as I am going off on holiday for a couple of weeks, but without success.

We would very much like to see an article along the lines you suggest if you succeed in seeing Mrs. Ford. As you know, we don’t commission, but would be most interested in an interview/profile feature. I shall be back here on October 13.

Yours sincerely,

Shona Crawford Poole
Deputy Features Editor.

I am here because I feel the best way to celebrate I W Y is to examine the very real problems women face today, not the progress of yesterday.

While many new opportunities are open to women, too many are available only to the lucky few. Many barriers continue to block the paths of most women, even on the most basic issue of equal pay for equal work. And the contributions of women as wives and mothers continue to be undervalued. This is not the time to cheer the visible few but to work for the invisible many whose lives are still restricted by custom or code.

October 22, 1975

Dear Ms. Matson:

In regard to our telephone conversation today, I would like to reemphasize our desires to be able to do an interview with Mrs. Gerald Ford during her visit on behalf of the International Women's Year Congress this Saturday, October 25.

I have made arrangements for our portable minicam videotape unit to be available for the entirety of Mrs. Ford's visit. While I understand from you that Mrs. Ford has requested that she not be scheduled to do any private interviews, I would hope that she might reconsider in this case. Since we are a network owned and operated station, we will be doing taping not only for our ninety-minute special program that will air this Sunday, October 26, but we will also be feeding news stories concerning Mrs. Ford's visit to the entire network. Obviously, an opportunity to talk to the First Lady for only a few minutes would mean more exposure.

I would even be willing to take the minicam unit to the airport and videotape something with her upon her arrival, en route to downtown Cleveland in her limousine, or any location at any time that would be convenient to the First Lady.

Attached is a list of the personnel, their positions and Social Security numbers, that I would have with me on Saturday. I understand that you need this information for proper Secret Service clearance.

Again, as I mentioned during our telephone conversation, please call me at your convenience and I will be glad to stop by to give you any assistance that I can in making plans for Mrs. Ford's visit. Thank you.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Albert Fisher
Senior Producer
