THE WHITE HOUSE Office of the Press Secretary to Mrs. Ford

Mrs. Ford will visit the Port Charlotte Cultural Center for senior citizens at about 3 p.m. today. She will tour the Center's theater, classrooms, lounge and eating area and visit the handcraft gift and workshop.

Greeting Mrs. Ford will be Col. Floyd Ffeiffer, president and director of the Center, and his wife Dorothy, director of the Theater.

Used more than 500,000 times last year, the Center is a regular place to gather for thousands of senior citizens in the Port Charlotte area. The Center is built and maintained entirely on private funds and by volunteer labor by the senior citizens. There are no state, local or federal government funds involved.

Included in the $2,500,000 complex of buildings: classrooms which house a national-award winning continuing education program of more than 250 classes ranging from art to world affairs to nurse aid training; a library with more than 40,000 volumes, which has the largest circulation of any library in the state; a modern theater with production company offering plays, lectures and seminars at minimum cost; and a senior lounge and cafeteria area for the regular activities that are scheduled.

The senior citizens who use the center raise all their own funds for additional buildings through bazaars, sales and other projects, like the handcraft workshop and gift area. The buildings and facilities they have built have all been presented to the county.

The Center began in 1960 with the establishment of the continuing education program. The Center was begun in 1965. It's motto is "The Place that Friendship Built, it's goal to "serve the people by enriching their lives."

Library: A Fine Place to Relax

The Cultural Center Offers Our People . . .

• A NATIONAL AWARD - WINNING continuing education program highly responsive to community needs, with courses ranging from Art to World Affairs, plus fishing, dancing, bridge and golf for those who wish to enhance their living pleasure through recreational activities.

• A MODERN THEATER which schedules a full program of concerts, travelogues, community shows, forums, opera, plays, revues and feature films - with admission prices geared to retirees' incomes.

• A SENIOR LOUNGE with a great variety of socialrecreational activities, including dances, games, informal concerts, song fests. Included also are areas where volunteers make and sell items of many kinds for benefit of the Center Building Fund.

• A PUBLIC LIBRARY with over 30,000 books, a big collection of records, large print books for those with failing sight and aid in obtaining talking books for the blind.

Capsule History . . .

THE SEED from which the Port Charlotte Cultural Center grew was planted in September, 1960, when General Development Corporation (GDC) created Port Charlotte U (PCU), a unique adult education institution. • In July, 1963, a citizens' advisory group assumed operational control of PCU. In May, 1965, the group formed a non - profit corporation and announced the plan to build a center. GDC donated the building site, worth $100,000, the Charlotte County Commission allocated $446,000 and a federal library grant of $82,500 was obtained. Gifts and earnings of volunteers added $270,000. The main complex was completed in January, 1968. • In 1970 - 71, a crafts training center and two large classrooms were added to the main complex and a separate Lounge was completed, at a total cost of $266,000. A year later, a $165,000 addition was built, practically doubling the size of the Lounge. • Fund - raising for a five year, $600,000 expansion program for the Lounge area was launched in July, 1973. The first two units, worth $190,000, were completed ahead of schedule in October, 1974. The complex was appraised at $2,500,000 in 1975, • The Cultural Center has one main objective and that is to serve people by enriching their lives.

 - c. Because of the number of free and low cost programs offered, the theater operates with an annual loss which is covered by donations.
- 8. HANDICAPPED programs: .

The Center sponsors lip reading classes and free captioned films for the deaf. A Social Group for the Blind meets regularly and blind persons and their companions are enrolled free in all classes. The Library secures talking books for the blind and large print books are available for those with failing sight. A stroke therapy class is co-sponsored with the Port Charlotte Methodist Church. Heart and Emphysema Groups meet. Staff members provide counselling and other services to those in need.

The seed from which the Port Charlotte Cultural Center grew was planted in September 1960 when General Development Corporation created Port Charlotte U. In July 1963 a citizens advisory group assumed operational control of PCU. In 1965, they formed a non-profit corporation and announced the plan to build the Center. In 1973 the Center had over one third of a million admissions. The Center has only one objective: To serve the people by enriching their lives.

Interested parties may arrange for a tour of the Center by calling (813) 625-7693 or writing the Tour Office, Port Charlotte Cultural Center, 801 N. W. Aaron Street, Port Charlotte, Florida 33952.

- a. Since its inception in 1960, FCU has had 4413 graduates. The 1961 graduating class numbered 29; the 1974 class 918.

NEW BUILDING PLANNED. By the time you read this Newsletter, the addition to the PCU office and the Price Court gazebo will have been completed. Plans for the next building - a 100 x 50-foot structure to be located parallel to the rear of the Lounge - are on the drawing board. We figure we will need approximately $45,000 in donations in addition to volunteer earnings to pay for this new building which will enable us to provide more and better services. Now is the time for all our loyal supporters to swing into action!

STYLES FROM ABROAD. One of the year's colorful events promises to be the International Fashion Show scheduled for Sunday afternoon, February 1 at 2:30, at the Cultural Center Theater. The show will be a presentation of songs, dances and costumes of countries around the world, according to Viola Root Devlin who is organizing the affair. Among those who'll model or loan their creations from abroad are Henrietta Baccarini, Edith Holtz, Christina Hott, Laura Bigler, Mina Lamb, Dorothy Pfeiffer and Mary Shaw. An outstanding entertainment feature will be the performance of the Centennial Band. Following the show, there'll be a tea at the Lounge. Admission to the show is $1.05, including tax. Fee for the tea is 50 cents, including tax.

INTANGIBLE TAX ANSWERS. To answer questions regarding the state's intangible tax law and to provide assistance in the preparation of the tax form, the Fort Myers office of the Florida Department of Revenue now has an advisor stationed every Tuesday at the Cultural Center Lounge in Port Charlotte. The advisor is Richard H. Peterson, examiner, Intangible Tax Bureau, and his Tuesday hours are 10:00AM to 2:00PM.

TICKETS FOR PLAY. Tickets will go on sale at the Cultural Center Theater Monday, February 2, for the hit comedy "The Tender Trap," third production of the Charlotte Players' 1975-76 season, which opens a five-night run Wednesday February 18. The story has to do with Charlie Reader, young New York bachelor who appears to be leading the ideal life. He has an elegant apartment, a good job and seemingly millions of girls. Charlie juggles his girls until one frantic evening he finds himself engaged to two of them. Hilariously funny complications ensue.

BUS SERVICE PLANNED. Here's good news for folks who'd like to attend February's main events at the Memorial Auditorium in Punta Gorda but who don't like to drive and park at night. Arrangements have been completed to provide round trip bus (school) service from the Cultural Center Lounge to the Auditorium, at only 50 cents per trip, for the Navy Band Concert Wednesday night, February 18, and the Florida West Coast Symphony Orchestra Concert, with Arthur Feidler of Boston Pops fame conducting, Thursday night, February 26. Each night, the bus or buses will leave from the Lounge at 7:45 o'clock for the programs which start at 8:30. Bus tickets are now on sale at the Lounge and Theater office, as are also tickets for the two events. The deadline for buying bus tickets is February 11.

INTERNATIONAL SONGS. Mrs. Mary Vassel, soprano, will be heard in a program of international songs at the monthly meeting of the Friends of Music at the Cultural Center Lounge Thursday, February 5, at 9:30AM. Mrs. Vassel's accompanist will be Mrs. Margo Jenks.

POLICE VETERAN TO SPEAK. Reyniear Staats of Port Charlotte will speak on the subject "Why We Need a Police Service" at the monthly meeting of the University Club at the Cultural Center Theater Thursday, February 5, at 7:45PM. His wide experience in police work eminently qualifies Mr. Staats to speak on the subject. He was for 28 years a member of the Detroit Police Department where he attained the rank of inspector and became commanding officer of the Traffic Safety Education Bureau. He moved to Port Charlotte in 1970.

FESTIVAL AND AUCTION. There'll be never a dull moment at the Cultural Center Lounge Saturday, February 7, what with the Annual Citrus Festival, serving up all kinds of citrus dishes and desserts, and the Chinese Auction, in which you get the item if your written bid tops the others. Myrtle Burnett hopes you'll donate items for the auction - jewelry, antiques, perfume, bric a brac, white elephants, anything you can spare.

WEDNESDAY AM DANCE. Bill Ross, with his marvelous stereo system, is hosting a dance at the Lounge every Wednesday morning from 10:00 o'clock to noon. Everyone is welcome to listen and dance. PLAYERS SEEK HELPER. The Charlotte Players are seeking a responsible man or woman who wants to supplement retirement income to help with season ticket sales. Bookkeeping experience is desirable. Interested persons should contact Virginia McDaniel, president, by telephoning 625-7136.

DOUBLE MUSICAL TREAT. The Florida West Coast Youth Orchestra of Sarasota will be heard in two separate concerts at the Cultural Center Theater Saturday, February 7 - the first concert at 12:00 Noon and the second at 4:00 PM. Sponsored by the Florida West Coast Symphony Orchestra, the youth group in past years has played to packed houses in Port Charlotte, Venice, Sarasota and Bradenton. Purpose of the orchestra is that of offering extended opportunities to student instrumentalists to play great music in company with other talented youth. Concert tickets at $1.00 including tax, are on sale at the theater office.

SYMPHONY SCHEDULED. The Charlotte County Symphony will be heard in concert at the Cultural Center Theater Sunday, February 8, at 2:30PM. A varied program of classical, semi-classical and popular numbers and show tunes will be played. There will be no charge for admission. However, a free will offering will be taken to help defray expenses.

ROARING TWENTIES BALL. There'll be no Pops in February at the Cultural Center Lounge, but taking its place will be the Roaring Twenties Ball Wednesday, the llth, starting at 7:30PM. Henrietta Baccarini and her cohorts are cooking up a storm of fun for the evening - music, entertainment and (hopefully) costumes reminiscent of the wild decade between World War I and the Great Depression. Music for dancing will be played by Julie and Her Escorts. Refreshments will be available. Admission: $1.50 including tax.

STYLE SHOW-LUNCHEONS. Two of the popular fashion show-luncheons have been scheduled for the Cultural Center Lounge in February. The first, on Saturday, the 14th, will feature styles from Eugenia Fashions of Port Charlotte and also Jo White lingerie items. The second, on Saturday, the 28th, will introduce styles from Elizabeth's Fashions of Port Charlotte. Shows and luncheons, starting at 12:00 Noon, will be followed by all-afternoon card parties.

3RD COLLECTORS' SHOW. The Cultural Center's Third Annual Collectors' Show will be held at the Lounge Sunday, February 15, between the hours of 1:00 and 5:00PM. Items to be displayed include antiques, china, glass, pottery, stamps, coins, books, dolls, music boxes, lapidary and bells. A focal point of the show will be the Bicentennial Table. All collectors are invited to display and there is no charge for tables. Table reservations must be made before Thursday, February 12. Reservations may be made by telephoning 625-7074, 625-4175 or 625-4490. For the public, admission will be 50 cents plus two cents tax. The admission includes the cost of refreshments.

BREAKFAST MEETINGS. The Greater Charlotte County Chamber of Commerce has scheduled four of its monthly breakfast meetings for 1976 at the Cultural Center Lounge. The dates are February 18, May 19, August 18 and December 15. Members arrive for coffee and rolls at 7:30AM, meeting runs from 8:00 to 9:00AM. About 200 usually attend.

LAS VEGAS NIGHT! Attention, gamblers! Another of our popular Las Vegas Nights has been scheduled for Wednesday, February 18, at 7:30PM, at the Lounge. Great games of chance. Phony bucks, door prizes, refreshments, lots of fun!

STRAWBERRIES PLUS! Big doin's at the Lounge Saturday and Sunday, February 21 and 22,

Between the hours of 9:00AM and 5:00PM each day! Event is the Lounge's Fourth Annual Strawberry Festival and Country Fair, designed both to please the palates of the populace with strawberry dishes in great variety and to raise money for the building fund. There'll be delicious food both indoors and out, entertainment, a flea market and sales of choice items in the Country Store, Trash and Treasures and the Gift Shop. Great fun! Don't miss it!

FRIENDS OF LIBRARY. Arthur Collins will speak on "Our American Heritage" at the monthly meeting of the Friends of the Library Thursday, February 26, at 7:45PM, at the Lounge. Mr. Collins is a member of the Governor's Bicentennial Speakers' Bureau. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

BICENTENNIAL CONCERT. A Bicentennial variety program, featuring "Musical Scores by the Score," will be presented by the Friends of Music at the Cultural Center Theater Saturday, February 28, at 8:00PM. Many members will participate in the program of vocal solos, duets, quartets and ensembles and in piano and organ solos and combinations. Tickets ($1.30 including tax) are on sale at the theater office. Net proceeds will go to the building fund.

CHORALE IS COMING. The Bicentennial Corale da Lee, 50-voice singing group from Lee County, will present a program titled "America's Heritage of Song" at the Cultural Center Theater Sunday, February 29, at 3:00PM. The program directed by George V. Cripps, with Aileen Cripps the accompanist, will feature the works of great American composers over a period of 200 years. Tickets for the concert, at $1.50 including tax, are on sale at the Theater office. -3-REGULAR WEEKLY ACTIVITIES

July 1, 1976

Dear Mr. Shaw,

What would I have done without you during the advance for Mrs. Ford's visit to Port Charlotte this year???

You were fantastic, and your help was much appreciated. Your patience and experience with the press were invaluable to us, and we felt very fortunate that you were able to work with us.

Again, Mr. Shaw, thanks. On behalf of Mrs. Ford, we are grateful to you.

Sincerely,

Patti Matson Assistant Press Secretary to Mrs. Ford

Mrs. Betty Ford c/o The White House 1600 Pennsylvania Ave. Washington, D.C. 20006

Dear Mrs. Ford;

We enjoyed your visit to Port Charlotte in February and thought you might like to have a couple copies of our front page coverage.

You might also enjoy reading the "Backtalk" column on page #4.

Come back and see us!

Respectfully yours,
