MEMORANDUM
THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON
July 31, 1975

MEMORANDUM FOR: DR. TED MARRS
FROM: BOBBIE GREENE KILBERG
SUBJECT: Proposed Presidential Visit to All Indian Pueblo Council at Taos and to the Navajo Nation at Window Rock

While I am very enthusiastic about a Presidential visit to an Indian reservation, I have a few thoughts that I would like to share with you:

(1) During the Nixon Administration, a lot of attention was focused both on Taos Pueblo and on the Navajo; and the broader Indian community often has criticized Washington for concentrating its attention on the large and/or southwestern tribes. Also, Navajo Chairman, Peter MacDonald, a Republican, publicly has joined Sargent Shriver’s Presidential Committee. It should be noted, however, that MacDonald’s rejection of the Republican Party, in my opinion, is due to the exceedingly bad treatment which he received from the Republican Party of Arizona and from Vice President Agnew, towards the end of his term. Taking all this into account, consideration might be given to a visit to a smaller, northern tribe, such as Colville, where progressive development is taking place.

(2) The term "Indian Message" is a signal to the Indian community to expect a new statement of policy initiatives in the legislative and executive areas. Two concerns about this: (a) I do not think we could produce such a statement by September 30; and (b) I do not feel that we have achieved our present objectives and believe we should do so before moving out further in new directions. I would prefer the President to make an informal speech in which he honestly assessed both the progress we have made to date and the obstacles we have encountered, and in which he avoided making any new promises. I think the Indian community would respect such a speech and the President’s honesty in delivering it.
(3) Cabinet participation: I think we should include Labor, DOT, HUD, Agriculture, EPA and FEA, in addition to the Cabinet members you mentioned (Interior, HEW and Justice). Both reservation and non-reservation Indian communities are rapidly discovering that programs which affect them are controlled by a wide range of departments and agencies, and we should encourage broader Indian contact by those departments and agencies.

MEETING: Address the Taos Pueblo Council and the All Indian Pueblo Council at the San Geronimo Fiestas in Taos Pueblo, New Mexico.

A concurrent visit to the Navajo Indian reservation at Window Rock, Arizona.

PURPOSE: To allow the President to visit the Taos Pueblo Council and the All Indian Pueblo Council representing approximately 40,000 Pueblo Indians of New Mexico - and to visit with the leadership of the Navajo Nation representing approximately 140,000 members of the Navajo Tribe - to present an "Indian Message" stating policy now being developed.

FORMAT: - location: Taos Pueblo, New Mexico, and Window Rock, Arizona
- participants: Leadership and members of the Taos Pueblo Council, the All Indian Pueblo Council, and the Navajo Nation.
- expected length of participation: Approximately 30 minutes at each of the visits.

CABINET PARTICIPATION: The Secretary of the Interior, The Secretary of HEW, and The Attorney General will have an interest in this event.

SPEECH MATERIAL: To be provided by Paul Theis' office.

PRESS COVERAGE: Full press coverage.

STAFF: Theodore C. Marrs

OPPOSED: None.
PREVIOUS PARTICIPATION: None.

BACKGROUND: The San Geronimo Fiestas in Taos Pueblo, New Mexico, will be commemorating the official feast day of the Taos Pueblo Indians. The Pueblo Indians, numbering approximately 40,000, are considered by many to be the backbone of Indian culture and tradition.

The All Indian Pueblo Council represents a significant and progressive Indian group, having made significant progress during this administration in response to Federal programs. It has been generally supportive of administration policies.

The Navajo tribe is the largest in the United States and has the largest land base. The Navajo Indians are frustrated at this time, because they feel that the initiatives taken by the Navajo Tribal Council have not been recognized by the Bureau of Indian Affairs. They want to develop their water rights and their land and mineral resources and feel that the President's Message in 1970 on Indian Self Determination and certain legislation have given them the right to self government, which they feel is being denied by the Department of Interior and the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

In meeting with these groups the President will demonstrate his sincere concern about the welfare of all of the American Indian tribes. The visits will provide two excellent forums for the President to speak concerning his interest in Indian culture, aspirations, and needs for economic independence and self determination.

These visits will be the first of a President of the United States to an Indian reservation and will encourage the entire Indian population of the nation. The visits will also counteract some of the unfavorable publicity recently generated concerning Indian-Federal Government relations.

Although the attached invitation is for Mrs. Ford, Jack Ford has expressed some interest. May I have your comments on Jack's attending the 19th American Indian Seminar on Scouting to be held in Browning, Montana in August?

Thank you.
Mrs. Betty Ford
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mrs. Ford:

The Blackfeet Tribe, of the Blackfeet Indian Reservation, is very honored this year to host the 49th American Indian Scout Jamboree on Scouting, a Seminar which will be held at Browning, Montana, from August 8 to August 12, 1976. As you can see, from the enclosed brochure, Browning is the geographic center of the Blackfeet Reservation.

The Blackfeet Tribe is very honored by your presence at this Seminar because of your long-standing interest in Scouting and the Executive position which you hold in the Scouting organizations. The Blackfeet Tribe has followed your interest in the youth of this Country and we feel that it would be very fitting for you to appear and encourage the Indian youth of this Country to develop and foster the many fine ideals taught by Scouting.

The Seminar on Indian Scouting is, of course, an annual affair and is very important to the Indian Scouting leaders throughout the Country. The Blackfeet Tribe has been very fortunate over the past years to have had several of its prominent members actively involved in the fine attributes of scouting. One of these gentlemen, the late Francis Guardipee, was honored by the National Scouting Association and by the Blackfeet Tribe for his many years of devoted service to the overall concept of scouting throughout this land. I personally have had a life-long interest in scouting and have had the good fortune to attend the World Jamboree which was held in France. Our Tribal Business Council has encouraged scouting on this Reservation for many years and have, for approximately twenty years, donated a large portion of one of our beautiful mountain lakes to the Boy Scouts of America for their annual festivities.

We will be most happy to provide additional information on airline schedules and accommodations for your stay. Any further information which your Staff may require will be quickly provided by my office. Again, this Reservation and Indian Scouting Leaders throughout the Country will be very honored by your presence at this Seminar.

With Warmest Regards,

Earl Old Person,
Chairman
Blackfeet Tribal Business Council

MEMORANDUM FOR: WILLIAM NICHOLSON
VIA: WILLIAM BARCODY
FROM: BRADLEY H. PATTERSON, JR.
SUBJECT: Invitation to the President to Address the National Indian Education Association Meeting in Albuquerque

I am not very high on his accepting this invitation. Education is a field in Indian-Federal relations which has been very prickly, with confrontations in the recent past (some in the courts) between the Indian Education community and the White House.

It is my understanding that the President has been invited to attend the Crow Festival in Montana on August 20, and it is also my understanding that Ted Marrs has long been hoping that President Ford would be the first President in recent history to visit an Indian reservation while in office. (Quite a few thousands of Indian reservation people from many tribes will be there, I am told.)

Commissioner Thompson and I agree that the Crow Festival on August 20 would be the best event for such a visit; if the President is in that part of the country around that time, all the more so.

I would put my eggs in this basket rather than the event in Albuquerque.

NOTE TO SUE PORTER

Two questions:
1. Do you have any further information about the possibility of a member of the First Family coming by the National Congress of American Indians conference in Salt Lake City on October 20? (The President signed the Indian Health Bill; it will be a happy time there, in general.)

2. Would any member of the First Family be free here at the White House on October 27, 28 or 29 (27th AM preferred) to say hello at the first meeting of the newly appointed members of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education (see release)?
