

The original documents are located in Box 11, folder “Ford, Susan” of the Ron Nessen Papers at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Ron Nessen donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

MISC.

10/6/74

Dave Kennerly and Susan Ford are giving the President today an 8 month old (birthday: 2/8/74) golden retriever that they call Liberty Hume. They don't know if the President will want to change the name or not but Susan picked it.

The dog came from Buffalo, Minn. from Mrs. Cleo Friederichsen of Windfall Retrievers, Rt. 1, Box 286, Buffalo, Minn. 55313. They don't have the pedigree yet - the name Windfall retrievers dog gave the /was STREAK.

The Fords have always had golden retrievers. The last one, registered Amber Beauty, but called Sugar by the Fords died a year ago. (it ate some poisoned food).

The first one named Brown Sugar had a heart attack.

This will be their third. The President has been talking for some time about getting another dog and according to Susan has wanted one for some time.

Its a surprise and they will give it to him today.

Mrs. Ford doesn't know about it.