MEMORANDUM TO:

Governors and Key Assistants

FROM:

Robert Witt

Director of Public Relations

This is RGA Communications '76--the eighth installment of our internal information service, distributed to Governors and their key staff assistants.

The notebook contains a number of informational inserts, filed in the appropriate section. In the coming months, additional inserts will be mailed to you.

All materials will be printed on pre-holed paper, making it convenient for filing upon receipt--and, thus filed, ready for future reference. The letterhead and RGA signature will remain the same, with the exception of a key word (printed in blue) reflecting the subject matter.

I hope you will take a few moments to become familiar with Communications '76. If the past is prologue, this informational service should prove itself a valuable and handy reference in the coming year.

> The U.S. Department of Commerce, in 1975, published the following statistics concerning Voter Participation in November, 1974. Statistics from previous election years are included for reference.

> It should be noted that this reported estimate of 45% compares with 39% from the preliminary count of actual votes cast as published in Congressional Quarterly. Previous experience has shown that there is a tendency for persons to overreport voter participation in surveys.

Of the 25 million persons who were registered, but did not vote, 7.7 million reported that they had been unable to go to the polls because of illness, disability, or inability to take time off from work. Another 7.7 million reported that they were not interested in the election, did not like the candidates, or did not think their vote would matter. Others were out of town or did not know of the election.

This report provides advance statistics on voting and registration; more detailed tabulations and analysis will be presented in a forthcoming report. Statistics presented in this report are based on answers to a series of questions asked of a sample of persons of voting age two weeks 76-qo-1 after the elections of November 5. The questions were designed to provide information on voting behavior and reasons for nonparticipation of the various segments of the population.

Since the data presented in this report are based on a sample of the population, they are, of course, subject to sampling errors. Confidence limits of 95 percent probability were applied to all statements of this report. This means that the chances are at least 19 in 20 that a difference identified in the text indicates a true difference in the population rather than the chance variations arising from the use of samples. Estimates of the size of the sampling errors will be included in the forthcoming detailed report.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Friday, January 9, 1976

Governor Arch A. Moore, Jr. of West Virginia, Chairman of the Republican Governors' Association, today named Ralph Griffith, as Executive Director of the RGA. Griffith succeeds James Galbraith in the post.

Griffith, a resident of Nashville, Tennessee, is a former political editor of the Knoxville Journal. He served as Press Secretary and Special Assistant to U. S. Senator Howard Baker and was Director of Information for former Tennessee Governor Winfield Dunn.

Immediately prior to joining the Republican Governors' Association, Griffith served as Assistant to the Director for Congressional-Media Relations, Office of Telecommunications Policy, Executive Office of the President.

In making the appointment, Governor Moore said, "Ralph Griffith brings to the post not only his knowledge of the total political arena, but his intimate practical knowledge of the workings of State government. I believe he will be a major asset to the RGA as the Republican Governors work to add significantly to their numbers during the 1976 elections."

Governor Moore also paid high compliments to James Galbraith. "During his six years with the RGA, Jim has been a constructive force in the development of the Association into a very useful arm of the nation's Republican Governors. On behalf of those Governors, I extend our appreciation to Jim for his dedication, and extend our best wishes to him in his new post." Galbraith resigned as RGA Executive Director to accept a position as Director of Corporate Communications with the Ti Corporation in Los Angeles, California.

What is the RGA?

Its membership consists of all Republican Governors and Republican Governors-elect of the United States.

When was the RGA formed?

The Association took roots in the summer of 1963 at the bipartisan National Governors Conference in Miami Beach. Its first chairman was then Governor Robert Smylie of Idaho. The Association acquired its first professional staff, based in Washington, D.C., in May, 1967.

What are the RGA's objectives?

The organization was designed "to enable the Republican Governors to take their proper position in expressing, developing and preserving the philosophy of the Republican Party in all the States of the Union." It assists in the election and re-election of Republican Governors and then offers the Governors an opportunity to consult and cooperate with each other as well as the Republican President, members of the Executive Branch and the Congress and Republican Party leaders.

Does the Association hold regular meetings?

Yes, the RGA holds two Conferences each year.

Does the Association have any special committees to carry out its objectives?

There are three committees. A Policy Committee has the job of developing suggestions for policy positions of the Association. It also conducts research for use of the members in the conduct of their political and governmental responsibilities. A Campaign Committee assists Republican Gubernatorial candidates. An Executive Committee deals with general RGA functions and consists of the Chairman, Vice Chairman and three Governors elected by the membership.

How is the Association funded?

Its operational expenses are funded through the Republican National Committee. Beginning in 1972, the RGA administered a campaign fund for Republican Gubernatorial campaigns. As the present time, the Association does not share in proceeds from the large Party fund-raising dinners as do other Republican Campaign organizations.
