Dear Ambassador Zahedi:

Thank you for your thoughtfulness in sending the photographs of me, my wife and my daughter taken during the recent wonderful evening we spent at your Embassy.

I look forward to seeing you again soon at the dinner for Julian Goodman.

My wife sends her love.

Sincerely,

Ron Nessen

Dear Ron,

I thank you for your letter dated March 11, in which you acknowledge receipt of the book about President López's administration that I mailed to you some weeks ago.

I now want to send you some copies of the booklet titled "The President of Colombia in the United States" which we published in cooperation with the American Embassy in Colombia.

With nothing further,

Cordial greetings,

Ron Nessen
Press Secretary to the President
The White House

Dear Ron,

I apologize for taking such a long time to write and thank you for the generous hospitality and other courtesies in Puerto Rico. I'm glad though that my timing does permit me to offer congratulations on the President's success in Kansas City.

While I don't entirely envy you the gruelling demands of the campaign, it will be exciting, of course, and in so many ways I'm sure very satisfying. Good luck and above all keep your sense of humour.

The lunch by the way was great fun, and elegant, notwithstanding our somewhat reduced ranks. I am especially grateful for the Bicentennial Commemorative. I will value it always.

Again, thanks and all good wishes.

Sincerely,

Dear Ron:

I intended to thank you right after our return to Bonn for the set of cufflinks you were friendly enough to sent to the Blair House during our visit to the United States. Soon afterwards I went on a short vacation to Greece. In the meantime we are in the middle of our election campaign. So I hope, you'll forgive me. Thanks again.

I, too, hope there will soon be an opportunity to meet.

Sincerely,

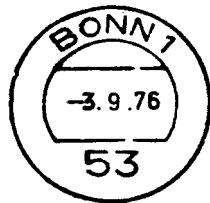

Klaus Bölling

P.S.:

Aboard the GORCH FOCK I had a short talk with President Ford, during which I praised your excellent briefing, not only to return a kindness for the cufflinks.
