

The original documents are located in Box 34, folder “Congressional Campaigns, 1974” of the Ron Nessen Papers at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Ron Nessen donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Some items in this folder were not digitized because it contains copyrighted materials. Please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library for access to these materials.

November 6, 1974

Office of the White House Press Secretary

---

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

President Ford made 26 campaign stops prior to the election, beginning September 19 and ending November 2. Some appearances were on behalf of all Republican candidates and some appearances were on behalf of specific candidates.

On September 19, he appeared on behalf of Representative Stan Parris in Alexandria, Virginia. Parris was defeated.

On October 7, he attended a Salute to George Aiken Dinner in Burlington, Vermont, which was also a state fund raiser. The President spoke in support of all statewide and Congressional races.

On October 9, he appeared in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on behalf of Senator Richard Schweiker, who won his bid for reelection, and Drew Lewis, who lost his bid for the Governor's chair.

On October 10, he appeared in Detroit, Michigan for Governor Bill Milliken at a fund raising dinner. Gov. Milliken was reelected.

On October 16, he appeared in Kansas City, Missouri on behalf of Tom Curtis, who lost his bid for election to the U.S. Senate.

On October 16, he appeared in Sioux Falls, South Dakota on behalf of Leo Thorsness, who lost his bid for the U.S. Senate. The President also spoke in support of John Olson for Governor and for two individuals running for Congress.

On October 16, he appeared in Lincoln, Nebraska in support of Charles Thone, who was reelected to his seat in Congress. The President also spoke in support of the candidates for Governor and other House seats.

On October 16, he appeared in Indianapolis, Indiana on behalf of Richard Lugar, who lost his race for the U.S. Senate. The President also spoke in support of those seeking election or reelection to the House of Representatives.

On October 19, the President campaigned in Greenville-Spartanburg, Anderson and Rock Hill, South Carolina for Len Phillips and Marshall Parker, who both lost their bids for Congressional seats. He also spoke in support of Jim Edwards, who won the Governor's chair, and Jim Watkins, who lost his race for Congress.

On October 19, the President appeared in Greensboro, North Carolina on behalf of Bill Stevens, who lost his race for the U.S. Senate, and also supported other candidates seeking seats in the House of Representatives.

On October 19, the President appeared in support of Marlowe Cook in Louisville, Kentucky. He also spoke in support of Congressional candidates. Senator Cook was defeated.

On October 22, the President appeared in Oklahoma City in support of Henry Bellmon, who won his race for the U.S. Senate. He also spoke in support of the candidates for Governor and for Congressional candidates.

On October 22, he appeared in Cleveland, Ohio on behalf of Ralph Perk who lost his bid for the U.S. Senate. The President also spoke in support of the candidates for Governor and for House candidates.

On October 24, the President appeared in Des Moines, Iowa at a statewide fund raiser and also on behalf of Dave Stanley, who lost his bid for the U.S. Senate, and for Bob Ray, who won the Governor's chair. The President also spoke in support of several House candidates.

On October 24, he appeared in Melvin, Illinois at a rally in honor of Les Arends who is retiring. The President spoke in support of the Senate candidate and individuals running for Congressional seats.

On October 24, he attended a statewide fund raising dinner for Republican candidates in Chicago, Illinois and also in support of George Burditt who lost his bid for the U.S. Senate.

On October 29, the President appeared in Grand Rapids, Michigan, in support of Paul Goebel, who lost his bid to regain the seat formerly held by President Ford.

On October 31, the President appeared at Sioux City, Iowa in support of Wiley Mayne, who lost his bid for reelection. He also spoke in support of other candidates.

On October 31, the President appeared in Los Angeles, California on behalf of Houston Fluornoy, who lost his bid for the Governor's chair. He also spoke in support of other state and federal candidates.

On November 1, the President appeared in Fresno, California on behalf of Bob Mathias, who lost his bid for reelection. He also spoke in support of other candidates.

On November 1, the President appeared in Portland, Oregon on behalf of Senator Bob Packwood, who was reelected, and Vic Atiyeh, who lost his bid for the Governor's chair. The President also spoke in support of other candidates.

On November 2, the President appeared in Salt Lake City, Utah on behalf of Jake Garn, who was elected to the U. S. Senate, and Steve Harmsen, who was defeated in his bid for the Congressional seat.

On November 2, he appeared in Grand Junction, Colorado on behalf of Senator Peter Dominick, who lost his bid for reelection, and John Vanderhoof, who lost his bid for the Governor's chair. The President also spoke in support of other individuals running for Congress.

On November 2, the President appeared in Wichita, Kansas in support of Senator Bob Dole, who won his bid for reelection. The President also spoke in support of candidates for Governor and Congressional races.

#

#

#

A 2 Thursday, Oct. 31, 1974 THE WASHINGTON POST

---

Fundamental Issues Almost

By David S. Broder

certain percentage, Owens

(2)

Obscured in Utah Senate Race