Proposed Nessen response to questions about
Conservative Republican call for open convention

I thought all conventions were open, at least until one candidate has acquired enough delegates to win the nomination.

The President is confident he will have enough delegates well before the convention and he will be ~~out~~ actively lining up delegates soon. ~~He~~ He ~~Plans~~ ~~to~~ line up a majority of delegates as soon as possible so there will be no question about ~~the Republican nominee for President.~~
