Ron: Re FCC ruling. Phil Buchen thinks you should not say the only reason we held off having a full-scale press conference was because ~~we didn't want~~ the matter was under consideration by the FCC. He's afraid that will sound like the only reason we have P.C.'s is to get live TVx coverage. But it seems to me ~~that~~ (and Cheney) that the words I gave you before are OK. We did have the Oval Office PC plus the various interviews on the road. So there was still a lot of info getting out.

January 24, 1975

There is a report that former Senator Marlow Cook will be appointed to the FCC to replace Abbott Washburn this summer. The report goes on that Cook would then be named Chairman to replace Wyley.

GUIDANCE:

There has been no discussion of anything resembling this.
(This comes from Bill Walter -- I did not check Rumsfeld).
