

The original documents are located in Box 119, folder “Indians” of the Ron Nessen Papers at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Ron Nessen donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

November 10, 1975

SUBJECT:

PRESIDENT MEETS WITH INDIANS

The President yesterday met with eight Ogala Sioux indians, following their four hour meeting with Ted Marrs. Their discussions centered on local Pine Ridge reservation problems, and general matters concerning housing, education, and government.

It is my understanding the meeting was very productive, and there is good communication between the indians and Mr. Marrs.

What did the indians specifically want and what did the White House agree to, if anything?

GUIDANCE: I think if you want specific details on the meeting you should talk with Ted Marrs.

JGC