

The original documents are located in Box 119, folder “King, Martin Luther” of the Ron Nessen Papers at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Ron Nessen donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

KING TAPES

Question

Attorney
Did General Robert Kennedy order wire taps on Martin Luther King? Are the tapes being kept? Should they be?

Answer

1. You will have to ask the Justice Department about the materials they have collected or retained.
2. The Justice Department is now analyzing the problem of how it should handle those materials whose original collection might be called into question.
3. The President will, of course, await the Department's recommendations before reaching a conclusion.

PA 1/28/75