SUBJECT:

PRESIDENTIAL MEETING WITH MAYORS,
ON THURSDAY, JULY 10

For Your Information

Last Thursday, July 3, Jim Falk, on behalf of the President, sent invitations to approximately 100 mayors and all of the Executive Directors of state and local government public interest groups for a meeting with the President on general revenue sharing in the East Room, on Thursday, July 10, beginning at 2 o'clock p.m. This follows the Mayors' Conference being held in Boston. Since it would be impossible to accommodate all the mayors who are members of the U.S. Conference, approximately 10 mayors from each of the 10 Federal Regional Council areas have been invited. However, any other mayors who have shown interest in attending this meeting will be accommodated.

In addition, Bill Baroody's office is inviting approximately 50 representatives of non-governmental public interest groups representing business, labor, minorities, educators, as well as professional and service organizations.

The major topic of interest will be general revenue sharing. The final format and sequence of events will be prepared in the next few days.

SUBJECT: MAYORS MEETING AT WHITE HOUSE
ON TRANSPORTATION LEGISLATION
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14

For Your Information

Claude Brinegar, Secretary of Transportation, Frank Herringer, Administrator of the Urban Mass Transportation Administration, and Mr. Ken Cole, the Director of the Domestic Council, will meet with a group of the nation's mayors tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the White House. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the mass transit legislation now pending before Congress.

Following that meeting, at approximately 11 o'clock, it is expected that Secretary Brinegar and several of the mayors will be out here in the briefing room to summarize the meeting and take your questions.

How many mayors do you expect to attend, and can we have the names of those who will be here?

GUIDANCE: I would expect around 15 or so mayors to attend, and once that list is finalized, we will post it for you.
