

The original documents are located in Box 122, folder “Communists” of the Ron Nessen Papers at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Ron Nessen donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

COMMUNIST PARTICIPATION IN WESTERN EUROPEAN GOVERNMENTS

Q. The President has said that the Western Alliance has never been stronger than during his Administration. Yet we see the increase in Communist participation in Western European governments. Does the President feel that Communist dominated Western European governments, or those with Communist participation pose a threat to NATO?

A. The President and the Secretary of State have each stated publicly that Communist participation in Western European governments would pose considerable problems for the Alliance.