THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

July 15, 1976

From MEMORANDUM TO:

JIM FIELD

FROM:

RON NESSEN RN

Do you think the President should write a letter to this blind girl who is a Ford delegate from Iowa? As you see, Senator Griffin's office suggests it.

If you think a letter from the President would be appropriate, I suggest you draft it and send it in for the President's signature.

Dear Jane:

Thank you for the letter and the clipping concerning the young blind girl who will be a Ford delegate from Iowa.

I will make sure the proper people here at the White House are aware of this young woman so that a letter from the President to her can be prepared.

Do you think...
Thank you for calling this to my attention, Jane.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Ron Nessen
Press Secretary
