ANNOUNCEMENTS:

5 persons to be Representatives and Alternate Representatives of the US to the 19th Session of the General Conference of the UN Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organizations

Text of a letter from the President to the Secretary of the Interior, Administrator of FEA and the Secretary of the Navy.

SCHEDULE ITEMS:

12:00 meeting with Senators and Congressman on his energy legislation. This meeting is at their request. 2:30 greet Jaycees in the Rose Garden, he will have brief remarks, open to coverage.

WEEKEND SCHEDULE:

Saturday: full day of meetings, mostly with staff; Coleman will be in to discuss noise abatement; don't know of any media event for tomorrow. Sunday: Looks like church, and possibly golf.

ELECTION DAY SCHED:

Monday, November 1, the President will go to Grand Rapids where he will overnight, Tues. he will vote and then return to Washington to watch the election returns on TV and attend the victory party for the staff.

FURTHER INFO ON TRIP:

Onboard the Natchez with the President will be staff, press, southern political leaders, local press. It will be a 6 hour trip from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., and there will be about 2 or 3 stops along the way to New Orleans (doo-dah). There will be a good press set-up onboard, and the press will have filing time at the stops which (doo-dah) will be 1/2 hour each. Nothing further at this time (oh doo-dah day!). Furthermore, (doo-dah), the pres. will be in Washington before going to Phila before the first debate, but there will be some events in D.C. next, don't have anything on them yet. We don't have anything on what if anything he will do immediately after the first debate (in terms of overnighing in Phila or whatever), if anything.....

NAVY PLANE:

Well D'EARS looks like the USN has gone into either the testing of a new line of underwater fighter-bombers or is now in the movie business, producing an aerial version of 20,000 leagues under the sea. This is top secret, of course!

GESTURES:

The USN did say however, that the most recent loss of one of the bombers which seems to have rolled off of one of the aircraft carriers...etc, anyway the USN assured you-know-who that they will make every effort, etc. The President saw Post picture, had no reaction. RN has no reaction, and as the Vice President would say.....

TAX BILL:

RN indicated that this is a very complicated bill, it is 1600 pages long, hasn't been received here at the WH as yet, and we can't say one way or the other about the bill since the President hasn't seen the bill as yet. His main complaint about the bill is that it doesn't give a big enough tax break

ANTI-TRUST BILL:

First title is basically an Administration bill, and the President supports it; Second title had the parens patriae clause but it has been modified to suit the Administration's feeling; Third title has been softened in terms of the Administration's objections. RN however, gave no firm indication of which way the President will decide on this bill.

CANNON REPORT:

Not received as of this morning. This is a report on abortion funds, and RN is checking on it.

SCOOP:

Well dearies, Hollywood sources told this pooler today that Connie Thumma, under the stage name of Hortensia Bushdwanger is going to be the heroine of the USN's new movie "An Aerial Version of 20,000 Leagues Under the Sea", or "How Well Do You Fly Under water?" CT is cast as the pilot of the underwater bomber and must struggle against a major identity crisis as the first woman underwater fighter-bomber pilot. Jan Barbieri is cast as the Loren-like Italian cleaning lady who plays opposite, you guessed it!...the Rev. Les! Gene Shalit says it's a bubbly film...
Toodles!

DEBATE PREPARATION:

The President is spending a relatively quiet day today. He will spend 3-4 hours alone either in the will come in to provide information. RN said that he wouldn't be surprised if the President spent the evening after the reception working on his preparation. The President has had members of his staff ask him questions to prepare for the debate. When asked if the Pres.

plans to use a video tape machine to prepare, or if he has used one, RN indicated not to his knowledge. Some staff members who prepared the President's material and who among others have asked him questions in preparation for the debates are: Duval, Cheney, Baker & Spencer. Also, some of the material the President will be reviewing will be remarks that Gov. Carter has made himself. The President has reviewed the first seen that as well as the other 3.

POSTINGS:

Message on the occasion of the holiday of Ramadan

Intention to nominate D. Tennant Bryan to be a member of the U.S. Advisory Commission on Information

CABINET READ-OUT:

The President praised Kissinger saying its "far from settled" Bush gave an intelligence briefing on the information which provided the background for the decision made on Rhodesia. HAK then gave his report. HAK indicated that basically without this effort, it could have turned into a very serious military confrontation very soon. He also explained the objection that the black african leaders have to the plan that was worked out, and explained that they do not object to the whole plan. HAK indicated that a "breakthrough has basically occurred", and that the "situation is essentially on track". The President thanked him for the report and then reviewed the options he had, sending Kissinger to Africa or doing nothing. Ron reported that doing nothing would have increased outside intervention (tacitly indicated as the USSR or Cuba.), and an absolutely inevitable bloody confrontation. Finally after a discussion of a 'trust fund', whereby private companies who would want to invest in Rhodesia (in the future growth of the Commonwealth) could do so, the President ended up with we are "going to make a maximum effort, I am an optimist". There was some vague general discussion of the trust fund which went over this pooler's head. Following the Rhodesia discussion, there was talk about legislation.

MICHIGAN INVESTIGATION: In answer to a question on the Special Prosecutor's investigation, and any Presidential reaction, we have nothing.

OTHER FOREIGN

MINISTER TO COME IN:

Tomorrow the Italian Foreign Minister will be coming in to see the President. Russian Foreign Minister Gromyko and the French Foreign Minister will be sometime this week. When asked if they are here for the debates, RN indicated that they are here for the UN General Assembly, and as in the past such as the fall of 1974 and 1975, the foreign ministers have called on the President. That is what they are doing in this case.

TRAVEL:

The President will be going to California for the 2nd debate on Oct. 6. No firm dates or times or places. We will leave either the 4th or the 5th. The President will attend a RNC fundraiser on Oct. 7 in L.A., and we have no firm return time to D.C. There will be other campaign stops.

GOLF:

This subject was discussed ad nauseum, shot under par, and double bogeyed by the other side on every hole.
