THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

December 18, 1974

MEMORANDUM FOR:

NANCY LAMMERDING

FROM:

RON NESSEN

SUBJECT:

Press Guests at the White House State Dinners

There were a number of media people invited to the dinner and after-dinner entertainment in honor of Chancellor Schmidt on December 5, who were not submitted by this office, nor checked through anyone on my staff:

✓ Mr. & Mrs. Harold Levy (Bonnie Angelo)	Time Magazine
✓ Mr. David Binder	New York Times
Mr. & Mrs. Richard Boyce	Scripps-Howard
Mr. & Mrs. Charles Cliff, Jr.	WETA-FM, Arlington
Mr. & Mrs. John Midgley	Mrs.-Producer, CBS News
Mr. & Mrs. Dan Morgan	Washington Post
Mr. & Mrs. Jerry Schecter	Time Magazine
Mr. & Mrs. Henry Trehitt	Baltimore Sun
Mr. & Mrs. Bruce van Voorst	Newsweek

Of course, I have no objection to having as many members of the press as possible invited to social functions -- it is a definite plus for the President and Mrs. Ford. And I recognize many of the above are diplomatic correspondents for their organizations and were invited because of that.

But I feel that there needs to be more coordinating of press whose names have been suggested by other offices to receive invitations. It seems to me that my office should be part of that coordinating procedure.

As an example of what might have been alleviated by such a procedure is a problem that arose with the invitation to Henry Trehitt. His name was apparently submitted by someone who did not know that he left Newsweek several months ago, inasmuch as his invitation was sent to that office. Newsweek, in turn, called my office to remind us he is now with the Baltimore Sun (of which we are fully aware) since they thought we were responsible for the invitation. This sort of thing makes everyone look bad, and could have easily been prevented had we been informed of his being invited before the invitation was sent.

Also had I known that so many press people were being invited beyond the normal list that this office submitted, I would have been more insistent on extending invitations to several representatives of the German press. The West German Embassy here, as you know from talking to Ed Savage, was quite disturbed by not having any German reporters invited.

It is my understanding that the procedure for press invitations not submitted by this office is that they would be passed by me before an invitation is extended. This is not intended in any way as a veto measure, but as a checking procedure to ensure fair and equitable treatment of the press (of course allowing flexibility depending on the occasion), and also to detect and solve problems that might arise.

I also would like to have two or three invitations to each dinner for editors, publishers, and columnists, in addition to those for the White House press who cover here daily. This is a vital area that needs to be included in the social occasions and I hope we can work something out.

Also I want to confirm the understanding we made after the Schmidt dinner which is that 2 or 3 correspondents from the country of the guest will be invited to all future state dinners.

Thank you, Nancy. I'll await word from you.

SUBJECT: Press Guests at the State Dinner Honoring Chancellor Schmidt of Germany on December 5, 1974

In response to your inquiry concerning a number of media people who were on the guest lists for the State Dinner honoring Chancellor Schmidt on December 5, 1974, I have the following information and breakdown:

1. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Levy (Bonnie Angelo)
(name was submitted by Sheila Weidenfeld)
- ✓ 2. Mr. David Binder
Mr. and Mrs. Richard Boyce
✓ Mr. and Mrs. Dan Morgan
✓ Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Schechter
✓ Mr. and Mrs. Bruce van Voorst
(names were submitted by the German desk at State Department, they were cleared by the press people at State and the State Department's justification for submitting their names was because these people were at one time correspondents in Germany with their respective affiliations)
- ✓ 3. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cliff, Jr.
(submitted by the German desk at State Department because my office had called them a few days before the State Dinner requesting some names of local celebrity types)
- ✓ 4. Mr. and Mrs. John Midgley
(submitted by German desk at State Department -- justification was because Mrs. Midgley is a member of the Board of Trustees of the German Marshall Fund of the United States)
- ✓ 5. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Trehwitt
(submitted by the German desk at State Department because he was a correspondent in Germany for the Baltimore Sun and after returning from Germany, he was a White House correspondent for Newsweek.)

With the exception of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff and Sheila Weidenfeld's in-put of Bonnie Angelo and husband, all of the other names were on the State Department proposed guest list that I forwarded to you with my memo of November 11, 1974 for your review and information. Since you did not voice any opposition to those on the proposed State Department list, I assumed there was no problem with adding them to the final after-dinner guest list.

Also, with the exception of Mr. and Mrs. Levy, all of the names you listed were on the after-dinner guest list.

As we have discussed, in the future, we will be able to comply with your request to have two correspondents from the foreign country of the honored guests.

If you have any further questions regarding this matter, I will be happy to discuss this with you and work out a solution to the problem or situation.

Thank you.
