

August 26, 1974

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

Partial identification of the President's meeting with the Little League championship team:

Presenting the President with an autographed game ball was the winning pitcher for the championship team from Taiwan, Republic of China, Wen Siang Lin.

Luis Marcano, pitcher with the Venezuelan team presented the President with decals of their team.

Mark Keluche, pitcher with the California team, was introduced to the President.

Dr. Creighton J. Hale, President of the Little League Baseball organization, was introduced to the President.

Jim Sharpe, catcher with the Canadian team, was introduced to the President.

Donald B. Daigle, pitcher and shortstop with the U.S. in Europe team, was introduced to the President.

Lorenzo Vincent, member of the Connecticut team, was introduced to the President.

The President then posed with pictures of each of the teams present in the following order:

Connecticut
Ohio
Canada
U. S. in Europe
Tennessee
California
Venezuela
Taiwan (Republic of China)

Posing with the President and the California team was Democratic Congressman Harold T. (Biz) Johnson, of California.

