

August 27, 1974

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President met for one hour and 50 minutes with his economic advisors. They discussed a whole range of economic matters, although a large share of the meeting was devoted to the housing situation. Various options were presented to the President on the housing situation, but no decisions were made.

The President also reviewed plans for the summit conference on inflation with his economic advisors.

#

#

#

