

SEPTEMBER 14, 1974

Office of the White House Press Secretary

---

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President's meeting with Ambassador Stanley R. Resor, Representative of the United States for Mutual and Balanced Force Reductions, provides the President an opportunity to underline the importance he attaches to the MBFR negotiations, to review with the Ambassador the status of the negotiations and give the Ambassador guidance for the next round of talks.

The nineteen nation MBFR talks reopen formally on September 24. Ambassador Resor and the U. S. delegation will depart for Vienna on Monday. This will be the fourth session (previous ones were October 30-December 14, 1973; January 17-April 11, 1974; and May 6-July 25, 1974).
